CAPTAIN HOWARD'S BODY IS PLACED ON BELGIAN KING.

A HEAVY RAIN AT SAN ISIDRO

SUPPLIES ARRIVING IN CASCOES FOR THE NATIVES.

Washington, Oct. 25.—The war department has received the following from General Otis:

Manila, Oct. 25.—Transport Grant, Twenty-sixth volunteers and recruits, arrived yesterday. No casualties. Aztec with civilian employes arrived this morning. Seven horses lost. All others in good condition.

CAPTAIN HOWARD'S FUNERAL.

Manila, Oct. 5.—5:55 p. m.—The funeral of Captain Guy Howard, the assistant quartermaster, son of Major General O. O. Howard, retired, who was killed October 22, near Arayat, took place today and was largely attended. A procession of troops escorted the body to the wharf and placed it on board the transport Belgian King.

The Twenty-sixth infantry arrived here on the transport Grant yesterday and sailed for Iloilo today without disembarking.

The insurgents have returned to the vicinity of Calamba. They have increased in numbers and are surrounding the town on the land side.

At San Isidro thirty hours rain has raised the river and supplies are arriving there in the cascoes of the natives. The health of the returning columns is excellent.

THE POSTAL SERVICE IN CUBA

COL. RATHBONE SAYS THAT IT HAS BEEN REORGANIZED.

The Two-Cent Stamp Has Increased Inland Correspondence—The Clerks.

New York, Oct. 25.—Col. E. G. Rathbone, who is in charge of the postal service in Cuba, arrived from Havana today on the steamship Havana.

He says the postal service of Cuba, which was in a very bad condition, has been thoroughly reorganized. Among the new features introduced are the registry and money order divisions, both of which have been in successful operation since April.

"The bankers and merchants of Cuba," said Colonel Rathbone, "now send remittances averaging at least $150,000 a day, and there has been sent to the United States alone over $200,000,000 in remittances. Both Spaniards and Cubans give evidence of the utmost confidence in the money order department. We have now introduced the two-cent stamp and in consequence the bulk of inland correspondence has greatly increased. Of the 600 clerks employed on the island by the postoffice department fully 500 are Cubans and I am hiring Americans only where absolutely necessary, this being the policy of the administration."

DENBY VISITED M'KINLEY.

Washington, Oct. 25.—Col. Charles Denby, of the Philippine commission, had a conference with the president today that lasted about an hour and a half, but declined to make any statement for publication. The commission will meet probably tomorrow, as Professors Schurman and Worcester are expected here today. Colonel Denby said that he did not think the commission would experience any difficulty in agreing upon their recommendations.

CLARENCE COOK COMING.

Clarence F. Cook, who has been in the Klondike ever since last January, arrived in Chicago this afternoon and will reach this city tomorrow. Mrs. Cook went to Chicago this morning to meet her husband and accompany him home.

FAVORS THE TAX.

Dr. W. W. Shryock telephones The [illegible] on a committee to protest against the vehicle license ordinance. Dr. Shryock says he is unable to understand how he came to be named, and that as he is in favor of the tax, he is inclined to doubt the expediency of his appointment on the committee.

LOWERED HIS RECORD.

Frank Bogash, the great little pacer, lowered his record Tuesday. He was started against his record of 2:04¼ and unpaced went the mile in 2:04. The horse is reported to be in better condition and faster now than at any time during the season. He was one of the first horses to take the track this summer and will be about the last to retire.

RECRUITING OFFICE TO CLOSE

NEXT MONDAY THE LAST DAY FOR ENLISTMENT.

Volunteer Regiments Are Filled and Fort Wayne Station Will Be Discontinued.

Lieutenant Rowell arrived last evening from Indianapolis, and administered the oath to two Fort Wayne young men who have enlisted in the cavalry branch of the United States army. They were George A. Ludington and Stewart A. Wortman, and the new soldiers left at 10 o'clock for Indianapolis.

The lieutenant announced that the Fort Wayne recruiting office would go out of existence next Tuesday, October 31, and those who desire to enlist in this city must come forward before that date. The reason assigned for the move is that the office was established for the enlistment of volunteers, and as the volunteer regiments are filled there is no longer need of maintaining it. Only one recruiting station for the regular army is maintained in the state, and that is at Indianapolis.

The Fort Wayne office was opened July 15, and has been constantly in charge of Sergeant Stewart. About 150 men have been sent forward for all branches of the service since July and Indianapolis is the only office in Indiana that has equaled this record.

LADYSMITH SCENE OF FIGHT

BRITISH FORCED TO EVACUATE NATAL TRIANGLE.

GEN. WHITE REPELS ADVANCE

BOERS DO DEADLY EXECUTION AMONG OFFICERS.

London, Oct. 25.—A special dispatch from Cape Town, dated 9:10 this morning, says there has been another battle at Ladysmith and that the Boers were repulsed. The British casualties were placed at four killed and seven wounded, all rank and file.

BRITISH LOSES AT LADYSMITH.

London, Oct. 25.—General White has telegraphed to the war office from Rietfontein, under date of October 24, saying that in the fighting near Ladysmith twelve of the British force were killed and eighty-nine wounded, and that five are missing, the casualties being mostly among the Lancaster regiment.

A special dispatch from Ladysmith, dated October 23, says the troop of the Eighteenth Hussars, which got astray in pursuing the Boers after the battle of Glencoe, has arrived at Ladysmith, the troopers having fought their way through with the loss of three horses.

LIST OF CASUALTIES.

London, Oct. 25.—The war office this evening issued the following:

There is nothing to add to General White's description of today's engagement, as given in his dispatch, except that we now learn the following casualties:

First Gloucester—Col. Wilford, killed.

Wounded—Lieutenant Hickie; Second battery, field artillery, Lieutenant Douglass; Fifty-third battery, field artillery, Major Abdyl, Lieutenant Perau, Lieutenant Hobart; Nineteenth Hussars, Lieutenant Holford.

The following casualties occurred among the non-commissioned officers and men:

Nineteenth Hussars—Killed, 1; wounded, 25.

Fifth Lanciers—Wounded, 1; artillery, wounded, 5; First Devonshire regiment, killed, 1; wounded, 5; First Gloucester regiment, killed, 7; wounded, 22; missing, 3; Natal volunteers, Carbiners, killed, 1; wounded, 10; Natal mounted rifles, wounded, 52; border mounted rifles, killed, 2; wounded, 10.

Total number of casualties as corrected is: Killed, 13; wounded, 93; missing, 3.

We learn from unofficial sources that the following officers, whose absence had not previously been notified to us, are prisoners in the enemy's hands:

Eighteenth Hussars — Lieutenant Colonel Moller, Major Greville and Captain Pollock.

Highland Fusileers—Captain Lonsdale, Lieutenant Leemeseurier, Lieutenant Garvice, Lieutenant Grimshaw, Lieutenant Majedine and Lieutenant Shore.

It is presumed that the whole squadron of the Eighteenth Hussars under the command of the officers named were taken prisoners.

YULE THREE MILES AWAY.

London, Oct. 25.—The war office this evening made public the dispatch sent by General White from Ladysmith at 3:50 this afternoon:

"The advance guard of the forces sent out by me this morning to get in touch with and help General Yule's column was within three miles of that column, which had temporarily halted at Sunday river about noon Sunday. I have occupied all the strong positions on the road to Ladysmith and I have no further anxiety about them. I have received from Lieutenant Kenrick, signalling officer of the Queen's regiment, who had ridden in, and also from Colonel Dartnell, of the Natal police, who accompanied the column, the best account of the spirits and efficiency of the troops, who are very anxious to meet the enemy again."

REPORTS DOCTORED.

London, Oct. 25.—The commander-in-chief, Field Marshal Lord Wolseley, has apparently been now con[illegible] of "doctoring" official [illegible]rts the [illegible] uous demand on all sides for a reversion to the earlier practice, when the reports of General Sir George Stewart White, the British commander in Natal, were given out textually as soon as received. The commander-in-chief's summary read in the house of commons yesterday spoke of General White having fought a successful action, whereas General White's own account puts an entirely different complexion on the situation and reduces the movement to its proper proportions and shows that further exciting intelligence may be expected from the same quarter at any moment. It is quite evident that the war in Natal has only commenced and that the Boers are by no means discouraged at losing the first two battles, and many experts are satisfied that General Jourbert is even now close to the heels of the British and that a decisive action may be fought today or tomorrow.

The main fact that the British were forced to evacuate the Natal triangle, which the Boers, naturally, rightly claim as a conspicuous success and which they may even emphasize by a proclamation annexing north Natal, is proving an unpalatable pill to the public, whose appetite had been whetted by the previous successes, which had been assumed to be greater than they really were, as the determination and gallantry of the Boers enabled them to quickly reorganize and achieve desired objects by other methods.

BOERS COOL AND BRAVE.

Later estimates of the Boer losses at Elandslaagte give three hundred killed. Their coolness, bravery and good aim can be judged from the fact that out of seventeen or eighteen officers with the half battalion of Gordon Highlanders four were killed and thirteen were wounded, while the casualties among the rank and file were 37 per cent. during less than three hours fighting. Lieutenant Campbell, of the Gordon Highlanders, has since died from his wounds.

A dispatch from Cape Town today says that General White has engaged the Orange Free State Boers who were advancing on Ladysmith, about seven miles northward, and that it was believed the advance had been repelled. This is probably another version of yesterday's fighting, as already known.

Other dispatches from Cape Town say that advices from Mafeking confirm the statement that fifty Boers were killed by the explosion of two trucks of dynamite purposely sent out by Colonel Baden-Powell to draw the Boer fire.

The offer of General Cronje, the Boer commander in the vicinity of Mafeking, to Colonel Baden-Powell to exchange prisoners, referred to Captain Nesbitt and others of the armored train wrecked at Kraapian.

Some significance is attached at Cape Town to the proclamation issued at Pretoria by the Transvaal with the view to safeguard British property.

The situation in the west is becoming complicated. The Boer proclamations of annexation and claims of a victory at Glencoe may induce the Dutch to side with their countrymen already in the field. It is [illegible]d, for instance, that the Boer forces have evacuated Vryburg, which, it is added, will be garrisoned by the local Dutch, among whom are prominent bundites and government employes. It is also believed that the Dutch beyond Griquantown are only awaiting encouragement to declare for the Transvaal.

KIMBERLEY IS INTACT.

Advices from Phillipstown yesterday say that the searchlights of the Kimberley defenses are visible throughout the night and that, therefore, Kimberley is still intact. The latest dispatch from Kimberley gives details of the arrangements made by the British commander, Colonel Kekewiche, for the defense of the town.

The meat consumption is limited to a pound daily. A sire brigade has been formed and its members are prohibited from joining in the defense of the place, as their services are likely to be otherwise required. The townsfolk are working ungrudgingly, notwithstanding sleepless nights and the absence of assistance. Miles of barbed wire surround the town. The Boers remain out of reach of the bullets.

A dispatch from Masreu, dated October 24, says Commissary Ingden was then starting to meet Lerothodi and other Basuto chiefs at Putiatsuz river, where the chiefs have assembled at the request of Lerothodi to pledge their loyalty to the queen.

THE BOER FORCES.

According to a Brussels dispatch, Dr. Leyds, the diplomatic agent of the Transvaal in Europe, has issued a statement that the Boers have now nearly 100,000 men in the field, made up as follows:

Boer [illegible]rs, 85,000; artillery, [illegible]

ALL GIVE THANKS.

PRESIDENT M'KINLEY ISSUES HIS PROCLAMATION.

FIXING THURSDAY, NOV. 30

AS A DAY OF GENERAL THANKSGIVING AND PRAYER.

PEACE HAS BEEN RATIFIED

RELATIONS ARE FRIENDLY WITH POWERS OF EARTH.

Washington, Oct. 25.—The president today issued the following Thanksgiving proclamation:

"A national custom dear to the hearts of the people calls for the setting apart of one day in each year as an occasion of special thanksgiving to Almighty God for the blessings of the preceding year. This honored observance acquires with time a tenderer significance. It enriches domestic life. It summons under the family roof the absent children to glad reunion with those they love. Seldom has this nation had greater cause for profound thanksgiving. No great pestilence has invaded our shores. Liberal employment waits upon labor. Abundant crops have rewarded the efforts of the husbandman. Increased comforts have come to the home. The national finances have been strengthened and public credit has been sustained and made firmer. In all branches of industry and trade there has been an unequalled degree of prosperity, while there has been a steady gain in the moral and educational growth of our national character. Churches and schools have flourished. American patriotism has been exalted. Those engaged in maintaining the honor of the flag with such signal success have been in a large degree spared from disaster and disease. An honorable peace has been ratified with a foreign nation with which we were at war and we are now on friendly relations with every power on earth. The trust which we have assumed for the benefit of the people of Cuba has been faithfully advanced. There is marked progress toward restoration of healthy industrial conditions, and under wise sanitary regulations the island has enjoyed unusual exemption from the scourge of fever. The hurricane which swept over our new possession of Porto Rico, destroying the homes and property of the inhabitans, called forth the instant sympathy of the people of the United States who were swift to respond with generous aid to the sufferers. While the insurrection still continues in the island of Luzon, business is resuming its activity and confidence in the good purposes of the United States is being rapidly established throughout the archipelago.

"For these reasons and countless others, I, William McKinley, president of the United States, do hereby name Thursday, the thirtieth day of November, next, as a day of general thanksgiving and prayer, to be observed as such by all our people on this continent and in our newly acquired islands, as well as by those who may be at sea or sojourning in foreign lands, and I advise that on this day religious exercises shall be conducted in the churches or meeting places of all denominations in order that in the social features of the day its real significance may not be lost sight of, but fervent prayers may be offered to the Most High for a continuance of the divine guidance, without which man's efforts are vain, and for divine consolation to those whose kindred and friends have sacrificed their lives for country.

"I recommend also that on this day, so far as may be found practicable labor shall cease from its accustomed toil and charity abound toward the sick, the needy and the poor.

"In witness whereof I have set my hand and caused the seal of the United States to be affixed.

"William McKinley."

DEBS TO REVIVE HIS UNION.

Terre Haute, Ind., Oct. 25.—The American Railway union may be revived. The organization, which virtually expired in 1894 at the close of the greatest strike in history, may be nursed back to life by Eugene V. Debs, its founder. A delegation of railway brotherhood men and labor leaders met with Debs before he left for the west on his lecturing tour and he promised to consider the matter and give his answer upon his return to his home in this city. The reason for the proposed reorganization is the lack of harmony which exists between the railway unions and which the railroads are said to be taking advantage of. It is believed here that Debs will undertake the work.

MANY JOIN TIPPECANOES.

The committee appointed at the last meeting of the Tippecanoe club to secure new members are meeting with some success and it is stated by an officer of the club that more than fifty new members have been secured and these will be initiated at the meeting in November. The club will give several entertainments during the winter of a social nature. On the occasion of the initiating of the new members a musicale will be given, and the ladies will be invited.

MRS. ELIZA MARKEY CALLED TO ETERNAL REST.

Expired This Morning From Paralysis—Had Lived in Fort Wayne Over Forty Years.

Mrs. Markey had reached the age of seventy years and had been in poor health for some time. She was a native of Dublin, Ireland, and came to America forty-nine years ago. She was united in marriage in New York to Lawrence Markey, who has been dead about four years. Two sons survive her—Richard F. Markey, assistant bookkeeper at the First National bank, and George Markey, who resides in Michigan.

Mrs. Markey was a devoted member of St. Patrick's church and a most estimable lady, with a large number of friends. The funeral announcement will be made later.

AN IMPORTANT FOOD LAW.

Heavy Penalties for Selling Articles of Food Containing Unhealthy Ingredients.

The following law was passed at the last session of the Missouri Legislature, taking effect August 20, 1899:

Section 1. That it shall be unlawful for any person or corporation doing business in this state to manufacture, sell or offer to sell any article, compound or preparation for the purpose of being used or which is intended to be used in the preparation of food, in which article, compound or preparation there is any arsenic, calomel, bismuth, ammonia or alum.

Sec. 2 Any person or corporation violating the provisions of this act shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and shall, upon conviction, be fined not less than one hundred dollars, which shall be paid into and become a part of the road fund of the county in which such fine is collected.

The operation of this law will be mainly against alum baking powders. But the manufacture or sale of any article of food or article intended to be used in food which contains any of the substances classed by the law as unhealthy—from Arsenic to Alum—is absolutely prohibited.

She wished the troops God speed and a safe return. Chamberlain."

This city's contingent for the Transvaal left last evening for Quebec en route to the seat of war, under command of Major Maynard, of the Forty-third rifles. Ten thousand people assembled at the armory to bid them God speed.

KASSON TALKS ON EXPANSION

PHILIPPINES PROMISE MORE THAN OTHER ACQUISITIONS.

He Defended the Right of the Country to Maintain Control of the Islands.

Philadelphia, Oct. 25. — Today's session of the International Commercial congress at the national export exposition was officially designated as "Exposition Day" and a number of speakers addressed the delegates on that question as it related to the development of the commerce of the countries of the world. Congressman Robert Adams, jr., of this city, former United States minister to Brazil, presided. In presenting the scope of the deliberations Mr. Adams referred to the weakness of the consular service of this country, laying the blame upon the system and not the administration of it.

John A. Kesson, of Iowa, special commissioner plenopotentiary for treaties of reciprocity of the United tates, then spoke on the subject of commercial and territorial expansion.

Mr. Kasson reviewed briefly the acquisition of territory by the United States from Louisiana to the Hawaiian Islands, and the conquest of Porto Rico. Referring to the Philippines acquisition, he declared it promised greater immediate advantages than any of the others. He said: "We already know something of the enormous capacity of the Philippines for agricultural production of tropical wealth. Of its mineral wealth we know less, but the indications are of the highest significance, not only of the baser metals, but also of the most valuable." Mr. Kasson concluded with a defense of the right of this country in maintaining control of the Philippines.

DAVITT WILL RESIGN.

London, Oct. 25.—Michael Davitt, Irish nationalist, member for South Mayo, announced in the house of commons today that he would resign tomorrow as a protest against the Boer war.

Mr. Davitt denounced the jingo press and said that the war for the meanest and most mercenary aims would be known as the greatest crime of the century. He declared that if he had been offered home rule and an Irish republic he would not have accepted them if accompanied by the condition that he vote for the war. As a protest he would ask to be relieved from attendance in the house. He had been in the house five years trying to obtain justice for Ireland, and he left it convinced that "no cause of justice and right would have the support of the house unless backed by force."

The ladies of the Wayne street M. E. church will be entertained Thursday afternoon at a thimble party by the hon[illegible] of Mrs. Tibbits, of Griffith

POLICY IS RIGHT.

BISHOP DOANE SUPPORTS THE ADMINISTRATION.

WERE FOUR ALTERNATIVES

AND THE PROPER ONE WAS TAKEN BY M'KINLEY.

DENBY CALLED ON PRESIDENT

DECLINED TO MAKE STATEMENT FOR PUBLICATION.

St. Louis, Mo., Oct. 25.—Bishop Doane, of Albany, N. Y., in his address before the Protestant Episcopal Missionary council now in session here, supported the policy of the administration in taking the Philippines under national protection. He said:

"To my mind, there were but four unalterable alternatives. We were obliged either to leave the islands under Spanish control, for a renewal of hostilities; we were obliged to leave them to destroy themselves in intercine strife; we could have left them to be fought over by European nations, or we could have assumed the position of protectors of the islands. I see no other conclusion, and the fourth alternative was the only one which ought to have been taken. We did it, and this great trust must be administered."

Missionaries from Cuba and Porto Rico presented the needs of the people of those islands and after some discussion it was decided to send a bishop to the latter island.

Many people witnessed the affair, but could not interfere in time to save either. The couple leave nine children.

GAVE A SWORD TO SAMPSON

A TOKEN FROM THE CITIZENS OF NEW JERSEY.

Governor Voorhees Made the Presentation Speech and Complimented the Admiral.

Trenton, N. J., Oct. 25.—Admiral Sampson arrived at 6 o'clock today, preparatory to the ceremonies incident to the sword presentation by the state of New Jersey later in the day. He was accompanied by Mrs. Sampson.

The admiral and Mrs. Sampson were met at the station by Colonel Thompson, of the governor's staff, and Colonel Oliphant, assistant adjutant general of the state. The party were driven to Colonel Oliphant's residence, where breakfast was served. Shortly after 10 o'clock the admiral visited the state house, where he was received by Governor Voorhees. The admiral went to the state industrial school for girls, where he was presented with a flag by Miss Helen Parker, granddaughter of the late Governor Parker.

The formal ceremonies of presenting Admiral Sampson with the sword began with an address of Senator Ketcham, chairman of the joint committee. He said that the high state of efficiency of the American navy was due to Admiral Sampson's skill and ability more than to any other individual. The sword, he said, would be presented by the governor to the admiral through whose skillful invention and wise leadership our naval victories were largely due.

Governor Voorhees, in making the formal presentation, said that it was his pleasant duty and great privilege to present the sword as the cheerful gift of the people of a patriotic state, with whom Admiral Sampson had for a long time his home. The people of New Jersey, the governor said, were proud of the admiral's services and remembered his distinguished accomplishments in time of peace. "The plan of battle which conquered the Spanish fleet," concluded the governor, "was matured by your quiet study and consummate skill and was carried out by your fleet without a single error."

REPROGLE IN TROUBLE.

Charles Reprogle, who travels under the alias of Jimmie Hughes, hired a horse and buggy of Liveryman Martin Monday and drove to New Haven. He was so abusive to the animal that Marshal Grabner arrested him and 'Squire Crippen assessed a fine, which Reprogle failed to pay and he was brought to Fort Wayne and will serve seventeen days in jail. A few weeks ago Judge O'Rourke suspended a sixty-day jail sentence against Reprogle. Humane Officer Schlaudroff will make an affidavit against the young man and the authorities will request Judge O'Rourke to lift the suspension and allow the young man to serve the sixty days.

FIRST DECISION OF ITS KIND

DAKOTA JUDGE DIRECTS JURY TO ACQUIT BANKER.

He Had Been Charged With Making False Returns to Comptroller of Currency.

Fargo, N. D., Oct. 25.—The case of former State Treasurer Lee Booker came to a sudden termination in the United States court today by Judge Amidon directing the jury to bring in a verdict of acquittal.

An error in the indictment drawn by former United States District Attorney Bangs was the cause of Judge Amidon's action. The indictment charged Booker with making false returns to the comptroller of the currency as to the amount of money on hand on certain days while he was president of the Grand Forks National bank.

Judge Amidon held that Booker should have been indicted for aiding and abetting in making false returns, as he merely signed the statement as prepared and submitted by employes of the bank and did not direct the false statements. There is another case against Booker charging embezzlement, which will come up at this term of court.

Judge Amidon's decision in the Booker case is the first one in the United States courts bearing directly on the point of the guilt of bank officials in signing an order or statement prepared by others.

TWO PRETTY WEDDINGS.

Clifford C. Davidson, the popular shippingclerk at the Bash packing house, and Miss Lillie M. Kiev, of Elizabeth street, were united in marriage Tuesday evening. The ceremony occurred at 7:45 o'clock at the residence of the officiating minister, Rev. W. J. Lake, in the presence of sisters of the bride and groom. At the close of the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Davidson went immediately to a pretty home they have fitted up at 8 Summit street. Countless friends will extend best wishes to the young people.

The marriage of Frederick W. Clements and Miss Catherine Hinga was solemnized at 8:30 o'clock Tuesday evening at the home of Mrs. Davis, 28 Melita street, Rev. J. W. Lake officiating. Mr. Clements is a prominent young farmer south of the city and his bride is a resident of this city. Mrs. Davis, at whose home the wedding was solemnized, is a sister of the bride. Mr. and Mrs. Clements have taken up their residence at the country home of the groom, with the warmest congratulations of many friends.

MISS LULU ARCHER HURT.

Miss Lulu Archer is confined to her home on Putnam street as the result of injuries received in a perilous experience on the Wells street bridge about 6 o'clock Tuesday evening. Miss Archer was riding her wheel and was passing a farmer's wagon to which a cow was tied just as a street car approached. The cow swung around to the side, knocking Miss Archer and her wheel in front of the car. The motorman was alert and stopped his car as soon as possible, but not until the car had struck the bicycle in which Miss Archer was entangled and dragged it some distance. The young lady was severely bruised, but no bones were broken, and altogether it was a most fortunate escape for her.

BOERS HAVE BEEN MISLED.

A special dispatch from Pretoria, via Lorenzo Marquez, dated October 24, purports to give an interview with one of the highest Transvaal executives, who is quoted as having urged that, while the Boer successes were yet unimportant, there was still time for an amicable settlement, as he believed the Boers had been misled as to the real issue.

GEN. SYMONS DOING WELL.

Cape Town, Oct. 25.—Intelligence received here yesterday from Natal says the bullet has been extracted from the wound of General Symons, who was struck down while leading his troops at the battle of Glencoe, and that the patient is cheerful and doing well.

Advices from Orange River, Cape Colony, near the Orange Free State border, announce that the Boers have taken Kripdam, near Barkley West, north of Kimberley, and that Assistant Magistrate Harmsworth and his clerk are prisoners. It is supposed that the Boers are advancing on Douglas, further west, the inhabitants of which place are asking for protection.

A LITTLE BATTLE.

London, Oct. 25.—A dispatch to the Morning Post from Kimberley, dated October 21, via Orange River October 24, says:

"An armored train was engaged this evening. One of our men was killed and two trucks of dynamite were removed from the town for safety and were blown up by the Boers. The Boer loss is uncertain. The Boer artilley moved around, trying to draw the force covering the town. There was a small engagement, but nothing of consequence happened. We are completely isolated, but as safe as a bank. Not one man has left. Rain is approaching. Our troops met the enemy cutting the line today and the Maxim gun on the train did great work and cleared away the wreckers."

BOERS DETERMINED.

The London Standard's special correspondent with the forces at Ladysmith, who was captured by the Boers and released at the battle of Elandslaagte, in describing his experiences, says:

"Unsoldierly as the Boers might seem there is no mistaking their physical fitness. Nearly all of them are strong, powerfully built men, while a few are veritable giants. They were all in high spirits; for instance, on the night of our capture our field cornet was induced to preside over an impromptu street concert. It was amusing to see a Johannesburger playing the piano with his gun still strung over his shoulder, while his more rusty comrades stood around spellbound. They sang, "Transvaal Volklied," with immense fervor. The one object of their talk was their resolute determination to fight to the last for the independence of their country."

Don't forget the blue serge suit that Patterson is selling at $10.

A veritable fortune, it is said, is gathered for the sultan from the wrecks of the battle of Smyrnia. Since 1770 a number of Russian and Turkish ships have rested at the bottom of the sea. These are now being investigated and the ship of the Russian admiral alone has yielded over $250,000 in coin, besides silverware and jewels.

Others may not have light covert overcoats, but Patterson has just what you want, at just the price you want to pay.

GOOD BEDDING.

How to Care For This Necessary Household Equipment.

In the purchase of factory mattresses one cannot be too careful in selection. The greatest deception is practiced in the make up of many of them, and when worn out and ripped apart one will shrink from and shudder in looking upon the filthy looking materials that all unconsciously they have been sleeping upon, supposing themselves to have owned the good mattress that they paid for, but evidently did not get.

A bed is not quite complete without its overmattress. This is made a little narrower and shorter than the mattress proper and is very like a comforter. Four or five pounds of good cotton is sufficient. More could be used, but it were economy and much better to make new ones oftener rather than ones so heavy. Measure twice the length that the mattress is desired to be, pin or tack one half of the length to the quilting frames, with the other half hanging over the edge of one of the end pieces, spread the cotton in layers, first lengthwise of the frames and then across, alternating the direction of laying it until it is all in place, lying over the second half and pin into place and, with darning needles and knitting cotton or twine, knot in squares of equal distances and run the edges of upper and under cloth together.

Underneath the under or large factory mattress and next the wire spring always stretch and fasten a thick muslin springs cover. This saves the undermattress from wear and the soil of dust. Over both mattresses it were well, if one has partly worn quilts to spare, especially for everyday use, to spread one of them to protect them. The quilt is more easily washed at frequent intervals than are the overmattresses.

How to Make Norwegian Bread.

One pint barley meal, half pint graham flour, half pint flour, one teaspoonful salt, two teaspoonfuls baking powder and one pint milk. Sift together barley meal, graham flour, flour, salt and powder. Mix into firm batter with the milk and pour into greased tin. Bake in moderate oven 40 minutes. Cover with paper 25 minutes.

How to Care For Silverware.

Any kind of plate in daily use may be cleaned by immersion in strong borax and water for two or three hours. The water should be boiling when the borax and silver are put in. After the plate is dry rub with a little silver powder and polish with chamois. If silver ornaments in the drawing room are not kept in a case, they soon tarnish. They can be brightened by dipping the articles in a strong solution of ammonia and hot water. Silver should never be rubbed with flannel or cotton cloth. The plate not in general use should be wrapped carefully in tissue paper to exclude light and air, as these are the two factors that cause silver to tarnish.

How to Cure Red Acne.

Rosewater, 250 grams; spirits of camphor, 30 grams; powdered sulphur 20 grams, pulverized senegal gum, 8 grams. Apply to the affected parts with a small sponge three or four times a day. The little yellow powder which will remain on the face after the lotion has dried should be left as long as possible.

How to Clean Ivory.

Piano keys and ivory knife handles should be cleaned with alcohol. Twice a week rub the keys of a piano with a clean cloth wet with alcohol, and they will always look well. A solution of two-thirds alcohol and one-third sweet oil will take ink stains from wood, but if they are fresh stains and not large it is well before trying the above recipe to take a soft cloth, breathe upon the stain, rub gently while the spot is damp, and it will rub out without any trouble.

How to Make Milk Soup.

Milk soup is very useful when there is no stock to convert into soup and the fish course is not to be boiled. Take a quart of milk and boil it slowly with an onion and a blade of mace. Rub an egg into two ounces of flour until it is in fine crumbs and then stir slowly into boiling milk. Season with pepper and salt.

How to Bake Oysters.

Boil a small onion, chopped very fine, in the liquor of one quart of oysters. Chop the oysters, but not very fine, and add to the liquor and onion with a teacupful of cream, a little mace, a cup of fine cracker crumbs, a tablespoonful of Worcestershire sauce and salt to taste. Cook five minutes and then thicken with a full teaspoonful of cornstarch thickened with a little milk. Let the mixture cool and then fill the shells and cover with fine cracker crumbs and little bits of butter. Bake until nicely browned.

How to Make Tooth Wash.

Spirits of wine, half a pint; borax, 2 drams; honey, 2 drams; gum myrrh, 1 dram; red sanders wood, 1 dram. Rub the honey and borax together in a mortar, add the spirit gradually and then the myrrh and sanders wood and allow it to stand 14 days, then strain. It is a good plan to rinse the mouth out at bedtime with water to which a few drops of permanganate of potash have been added. It keeps the mouth pure and sweet.

How to Preserve Eggs.

Eggs may be kept as good as new for months if they are smeared all over, the day they are laid, with glycerin

Scrofula, a Vile Inheritance.

Scrofula is the most obstinate of blood troubles, and is often the result of an inherited taint in the blood. S. S. S. is the only remedy which goes deep enough to reach Scrofula; it forces out every trace of the disease, and cures the worst cases.

My son, Charlie, was afflicted from infancy with Scrofula, and he suffered so that it was impossible to dress him for three years. His head and body were a mass of sores, and his eyesight also became affected. No treatment was spared that we thought would relieve him, but he grew worse until his condition was indeed pitiable. I had almost despaired of his ever being cured, when by the advice of a friend we gave him S. S. S. (Swift's Specific). A decided improvement was the result, and after he had taken a dozen bottles, no one who knew of his former dreadful condition would have recognized him. All the sores on his body have healed, his skin is perfectly clear and smooth, and he has been restored to perfect health.

NATURE'S CURE

It Makes Restful Sleep.

Sleeplessness almost invariably accompanies constipation and its manifold attendant evils—nervous disorders, indigestion, headache, loss of appetite, etc. To attempt to induce sleep by opiates is a serious mistake, for the brain is only benumbed and the body suffers. TYPHOON WAS DISASTROUS

MORE DAMAGE ON LAND THAN ON SEA.

Raged With Fierceness and Hundreds of Houses Were Wrecked and Lives Lost.

Victoria, B. C., Oct. 25.—Intelligence is brought by the Rinsa Maru, which has arrived here, that the typhoon through which the Empress and Senator passed proved more disastrous on land than on sea. In Tokio and Yokohama it raged with great fierceness. Hundreds of houses were wrecked in all districts, though the storm seems to have been attended with less loss of life than usual.

A train bound for Fushima from Myeno encountered a gale of such terrific fury when crossing the Hokogowa that it was blown into the river. It consisted of ten cars, including two locomotives, four carriages and three brake vans. The locomotives, having cut off their coupling pins, escaped scathless, but all the other cars, carrying about 100 passengers, were precipitated from the bridge. One person was killed instantly, thirty were severely injured and thirty others slightly. One woman is reported missing. Fortunately the water below the bridge is not deep. Had it been, all the passengers would have been drowned.

News of another disastrous catastrophe comes from Tagonaoura, between Numadeza and Suzukawa. About 1 o'clock on October 7 a tidal wave swept over Tagonaoura. Over 200 houses were destroyed and more than 100 people perished. The neighborhood of Yoschiwa Meiwa was converted into an extensive lake. A number of boats are engaged in the search for the dead bodies. Great misery and suffering prevails among the afflicted people.

A telegram from Miyazaki prefecture also reports the occurrernce of a tidal wave at Mimitzumachi on October 6 and the destruction of many houses.

It is believed that Russia is attempting to secure a naval station between Vladistock and Laio Tung and has selected Maaphus. She is attempting to buy land, but the Koreans are holding out for a big price and it is believed will secure it.

WAS NOT IN COMBINE.

Berlin, Oct. 25.—The Tagblatte denies the statement of Eclair, of Paris, that Germany, after promising assistance to France and Russia for the purpose of intervention in the Transvaal, seems to withdraw it.

The Tagblatte declares: "We believe we are well informed when we state that the German government did not participate in any combine for intervention."

The national headquarters is in New York City, and the mission of the organization is the practical exemplification of charity.

Because his wife objected to his snoring after a hard day's work, and followed her objections by fistic arguments, as alleged in his complaint, James H. Shrodes filed suit in the circuit court for a divorce from Ella Shrodes. He recites that his life has been made a "hades on earth" by his wife's vigorous objections to the snoring habit, of which he is a victim, and by her jealousy.

J. M. Metheny, of Wabash, sold his drug store to Mrs. Margaret Roberts a month ago, and at the time there was considerable speculation regarding the motive for the transfer, and this is in part explained by a petition in involuntary bankruptcy filed against Metheny last Saturday by Charles Mayer & Co., of the Kiefer Drug company, of Indianapolis, F. B. Wilt and the Fort Wayne Drug company, of Fort Wayne and the Waiding & Marvin company, of Toledo, Ohio. It is alleged in the petition that Metheny made a fraudulent transfer to avoid liability for debts. The amount of the claims is $600.

COUNCIL WANTS INTEREST

LAFAYETTE HAVING TROUBLE ABOUT THE SCHOOL FUND.

By Unanimous Vote Council Demands Resignation of School Board Treasurer.

Lafayette, Ind., Oct. 25.—The city council Monday night, by a unanimous vote, demanded that W. S. Peckham resign as a member of the school board. This action is based on a refusal by Mr. Peckham, as alleged, to turn over the interest last year on school funds, of which he was treasurer. Mr. Peckham recently attracted considerable attention by furnishing $4,000 cash bonds for the Chenowiths, at Frankfort, who were prosecuted for depending on Christian Science instead of medical aid at the time their child died. They were afterwards acquitted.

A BIG BRASS TRUST.

New York, Oct. 25.—A giant brass combine is being formed which, it is stated, will comprise all the plants in the Naugatuck valley, Connecticut. The main office will be in this city. Among the concerns that are reported to have already entered the trust are the Waterbury Brass company, of Waterbury; the Ansonia Brass and Copper company, of Ansonia; the Coe Brass company, of Torrington, and the Coe Brass company's new plant in Ansonia, formerly Wallace & Sons. This nucleus, it is said, represents an annual business of $25,000,000 and a joint plant of $6,000,000.

A correspondent to a local paper comments on what we said a short time age in regard to Christians attending base ball games on Sunday and infers that one must necessarily be an eye-witness to an occurrence before he should comment upon it. We do not say that our worthy friend attends the ball games, but she must have been kept very busy traveling from one place to another on last Sunday to have been an eye-witness to the many occurrences which she narrates to have taken place on that day. We suggest that our friend read the 12th, 13th and 14th verses of the fifth chapter of Deuteronomy and notice what it says in regard to keeping the Sabbath day.

SAVED FROM THE KNIFE AND GRAVE.

Morris Chapel, Tenn., March 1, 1899.

I have used McElree's Wine of Cardui long enough to know what it will do. About seven years ago I was taken down with La Grippe. Neuralgia later set in and our family doctor said I had stone in the bladder, and that the only cure was the knife. I suffered for seven months. I think, myself, the main trouble was neuralgia of the womb. The pains would start in my face and teeth and run down my back, finally settling in my womb. Then I would get cold and stiff from the knees down and would have to go to bed. I heard of Wine of Cardui about that time, and commenced to take it. After using it for a few days I felt very much better, and am now as well as I ever was in my life. I am certain I would have been in my grave before now if I had not taken Wine of Cardui and Black-Draught.
Mrs. MARY BOOKER.

Mrs. Mary Booker's experience is a common one. McElree's Wine of Cardui has many times saved a suffering woman from a surgeon's knife and from an untimely grave.

The physician of to-day treats so many different ailments that he cannot give adequate investigation and correct treatment to all. Simple irregularities of the female organs, if neglected, or improperly treated, frequently result in permanent ailments of the most complicated kind. When a physician fails to correctly diagnose such a case, he too often resorts to unnecessary operations with distressing results. The deaths on the operating table reported in the newspapers, and the women of every one's acquaintance made invalids by operations for "womb troubles", show that Wine of Cardui has not come into popular use too soon. Mrs. Booker's trial of Wine of Cardui gave her happiness, health and freedom from suffering, in place of the offensive operation with which she was threatened. What a change!

SHOP AND RAIL.

SOME CHANGES WROUGHT BY THE WABASH.

PERU BOOMS, ANDREWS DIES

THE RESULT OF CHANGE IN DIVISION TERMINAL.

CAR SHORTAGE GROWS WORSE

BUSINESS GREATLY HANDICAPPED IN CONSEQUENCE.

Writing from Peru, a correspondent of the Indianapolis News says that the Wabash company disburses in wages at that city an average of $20,000 per month. Concerning the downfall of Andrews, the same correspondent says: "When the Wabash made arrangements to run its trains over the Grand Trunk railway from Detroit, Mich., to Buffalo, N. Y., it made a move which killed Andrews and boomed Peru. The company having a direct line, the Eel River road, between Peru and Detroit, was enabled to run its trains from Kansas City, Mo., to Buffalo, N. Y., by a direct route. For western shippers, especially grain and stock men, this route has proved a great convenience. This arrangement left the Andrews division headquarters in an out-of-the-way place, and as a result the company proceeded to adjust matters to suit the required conditions. Little by little the citizens of Andrews saw the headquarters moved to Peru and now only the empty buildings and the yards remain to tell the story of how the place once flourished. In the town vacant houses are more numerous than occupied ones, and in some instances landlords permit families to live in their houses free of charge in order that they may be kept in a desirable condition. The Wabash employs less than a half-dozen men in Andrews now. The citizens realize the wonderful change that has taken place and are trying to locate factories. They have succeeded in landing a novelty works, which will employ a hundred workmen. The conditions at Andrews are just the opposite to those here in Peru. Here every house is occupied and many Wabash railroaders who have their families elsewhere would move to Peru if they could find suitable homes. During the summer 125 houses were erected here and these, too, are occupied. Many others are being built, but the supply will not equal the demand."

Butler's experience was similar to that of Andrews, though the damage wrought by the change was not so extensive. There is evidently some deal on between the Wabash and the Lake Shore at Butler. Concerning it the Record of that place says: "There is some peculiar and unusual move being made by the railroad people here that may be taken as indicative of something. The Wabash is moving its storehouse, or rather its goods, to Peru, where they will establish it. The Lake Shore has cleaned up and repaired the two tracks leading to the two south stalls of the round house. These tracks not being used, had been allowed to grow up with weeds and were not kept in repair. It is said that the Eel River railroad company owns the two south stalls to which the tracks have been repaired, yet the Lake Shore did the repairing, but why they should only repair two tracks is the question."

THE CAR SHORTAGE.

The car shortage is still troubling railway officials and will continue to do so all winter. As one official puts it, "We think one day that there is an improvement in the situation and that we can see our way out. The next day it is different and we find ourselves as badly off as ever." Eastern lines are no further ahead in filling orders than a week ago. Their transfer elevators are busy working night and day and still they cannot keep up with the heavy offerings of grain from the western lines. Last week witnessed sales of nearly 3,000,000 bushels of corn and about 1,000,000 bushels of other grains, which will have to go forward before the advance in rates becomes effective, November 1. Most of this grain will go to Philadelphia, Baltimore and Newport News. In the west, the south and southwest the car situation has grown worse. The Northwestern and St. Paul officials say that they cannot supply half the demands made upon them for cars. The Burlington has orders booked for 2,000 more cars than it is able to fill, taking the system over. According to a dispatch from Montreal, never before in the history of railroading in Canada have the railway companies been so hampered for want of rolling stock. Though the Canadian Pacific and Grand Trunk companies made very large additions to both their passenger and freight rolling stock in anticipation of a very large increase in the general freight carrying business this autumn, they now find that, with every car in use, and with all those that can be obtained from the car companies in the United States, they are very short on rolling stock. Apart from the good crops in the west of both countries, the general freight carrying business has increased enormously over that of last season.

THEY MAY STRIKE.

The tension between the Great Northern and its employes has almost reached the snapping point. The grievance committees which have been in session in the Twin Cities for ten days, met again Monday and it is understood that they formulated an ultimatum. The bonding system and the use of spotters are the two main points of grievance.

THEY ARE WELCOME.

Huntington News-Democrat: "Jas. Swain, of Fort Wayne, who resigned his position in the Erie shops to accept a position as brakeman on the Pittsburg, came down from Fort Wayne to move his household goods to that city Wednesday.—Jacob Z. Long will move his household goods and family to Fort Wayne tomorrow. For several years he has been in the berry business in Clear Creek township. He will take a position in the Fort Wayne shops."

THE PENNSYLVANIA'S PLANS.

A high official in Pennsylvania railroad circles states that the company is at work mapping out improvements to be made next year, and so far they consist principally in the construction of various freight yards, enlarging terminals and laying more tracks. The report will be submitted to President Cassatt, and it depends altogether on the continuation of the activity in business, for if there should be a sudden falling off work will be cut down. One of the principal operations which has been planned is the construction of a new station at Pittsburg and the doing away with grade crossings on the Fort Wayne road in that city. This work will cost several millions and when the building is completed it will be one of the finest along the line of the road.

BROKE HIS LEG.

I. Bailey, of the Pittsburg tank shop, who went down to Dixon, Ohio, last Saturday to spend Sunday with his relatives, did not return as expected, and a telegram from him this morning stated that he is detained there by an accident that befel his little son. The lad fell and fractured the bones of one of his legs and is in such condition that he cannot be brought home at present. Mr. Bailey will remain there with him a few days.

FIREMAN HURT.

While his engine was taking coal at Wanatah last night, a big piece of the fuel rolled off the dump cart and alighted upon the head of Fireman D. D. Stewart, of the Pittsburg road. The unfortunate man received a bad scalp wound and is suffering from concussion. He was brought to his home in this city, where Dr. G. C. Stemen attended him.

OFFICERS INSPECTING ROAD.

A special train bearing General Superintendent A. W. Johnston, Motive Power Superintendent John McKinzie, Division Superintendent C. D. Gorham and other officials of the line, arrived in the city this forenoon and remained here several hours, while the officials inspected the property and discussed matters of interest to the company, including the proposed big intercepting sewer.

DR. WILSON'S SUCCESSOR.

The Pennsylvania company announces the appointment as surgeon at Plymouth of Dr. Aspinwall, one of the best known physicans at that place. Dr. J. H. Wilson, who died a few weeks ago, was the company's surgeon at that point for a number of years.

RE-ELECTED THE OFFICERS.

Cincinnati, Ohio, Oct. 25.—The stockholders of the Cleveland, Cincinnati, Chicago and St. Louis railroad (Big Four) today elected the following directors: Geo. T. Bliss, H. M. C. Twombley, J. B. Layng and F. W. Vanderbilt.

There were 63,455 preferred and 158,164 common stock represented. No one was elected to succeed the late Cornelius Vanderbilt. The board will meet in New York November 14 to organize.

TRAINMEN WILL WIN.

The Big Four trainmen's committee held a conference with General Superintendent Van Winkle at Indianapolis yesterday, lasting all day, over the question of restoring the scale of wages paid to brakemen and switchmen at the time the reduction was made in 1893. Nothing definite was [illegible] as it is intimated [illegible] matter with General Manager Schaff when he arrives. There is every reason to believe, however, that the request of the men will be granted.

IRON AND STEEL GO UP.

Pittsburg, Pa., Oct. 25.—The American Manufacturer, in its issue tomorrow will say:

"It is understood that the mills making steel rails combined and notified the railroad interests of the country that prices would be advanced and that the railroads could cover all their wants at $33 per ton.

"Nearly every railway in the country came in with orders and an aggregate of 1,500,000 tons of rails were ordered at the above price for delivery in 1900. The price was then raised by rail makers as follows

"For standard sections, in lots from 100 to 200 tons, $37; car load lots, $38, and less than car load lots, $40.

"Light rails, from 25 to 50 pounds per yard, $37 per ton. All the prices quoted are f. o. b. Pittsburg mills.

"The importance of this can scarcely be realized. The total sales aggregate about $50,000,000. This means that about one-sixth of the total steel output for 1900 will be consumed in the manufacture of rails.

"This does not include the orders placed by the Russian government some time ago, together with other orders which will make the aggregate tonnage in rails next year much more than has already been ordered.

"This fixes it beyond all peradventure that prices of iron and steel for 1900 will be considerably higher than prevailing figures."

Engineer John Cummins, with a Wabash passenger train on the Eel River division, made a trip a few days ago from Montpelier, Ohio, to Peru, a distance of 100 miles, in one hour and forty-eight minutes, beating all previous records. The train made stops wherever scheduled.

The Philadelphia and Reading railroad company has placed a contract with the American Foundry company, of Detroit, for the construction of 1,000 coal cars. This makes a total of 2,500 coal cars contracted for by the company within a week and it is an indication of the great activity in the coal trade.

The additional capitalization is to be used in the acquirement of equipment.

REV. SAMSON ACCEPTS A CALL

FORT WAYNE PASTOR GOES TO MULBERRY, IND.

Unanimous Call to a Very Desirable Pastorate—Will Leave Fort Wayne Next Week.

Rev. Maurice Samson, formerly pastor of Heidelberg Reformed church in this city, will leave Fort Wayne next week to accept the pastorate of the Reformed church at Mulberry, Ind., a town of 800 inhabitants, fifteen miles southwest of Lafayette. The call was unanimous, and the fact that Rev. Samson was selected from among a large number of applicants is highly complimentary to his ability as a pastor.

Rev. Samson preached a trial sermon at Mulberry three weeks ago, and the call followed his appearance there. There were twenty-two applicants, five of whom were heard in trial sermons, but the unanimous vote of both the consistory and the congregation fell to the Fort Wayne minister.

The Reformed church at Mulberry is said to be one of the prettiest of the Reformed churches in the west. The congregation is a very old one, but a thoroughly modern church building was erected about five years ago. There are three appointments, closely connected, at which he will preach, and the total membership is nearly five hundred. The pastorate is a very lucrative one, and in all respects desirable. Rev. Samson will remove to the new work at once, and has already begun preparations for leaving Fort Wayne next week.

Mrs. Clara D. Stacy, of Chicago, will give a course of free illustrated lectures under the auspices of the Viavi company on the "Higher Physical Life of Women" at the gymnasium of the Y. W. C. A., October 26th, 27th, 31st and November 2nd at 7:30 p. m. Subjects: "The Way of Life in the House Beautiful"; "Pictures from Life"; "Motherhood and Heredity"; "Our Responsibilities."

OOM PAUL'S GOOD FRAU

Although a Multimillionaire's Wife, She Cooks and Washes and Darns—Knows More About Knitting Than Politics.

BY MARY E. LEONARD.

The wife of "Oom Paul" Kruger is a plain, motherly looking old woman, who is as vigorous at 65 as most women are at 40. As wife of the president of the Transvaal republic she lives as simply as any burgher's wife in the country. Although her husband is said to have a fortune of from $25,000,000 to $35,000,000, she lives as economically as she would if they had not a penny in the bank.

What would we think of the wife of an American multimillionaire who did her own housework, cooked her own meals, made her own dresses and darned her husband's socks? Yet Mrs. Kruger does all these things. She has none of the airs of the fine lady. The wives of many a $1,500 a year clerk in Pretoria dress better than does the wife of the Boer president.

She is not parsimonious or miserly, however. She has a good, kind face. She has been a good wife and a good mother for half a century, and she knows not how to be anything different. In short, she is a typical good Dutch frau.

For many years the Krugers lived in a modest little cottage on one of Pretoria's back streets. The walls were generally covered with morning glory vines, and there was a big tree in the front yard. Under this tree Mrs. Kruger used to sit with her knitting, while her lord and master sat near smoking.

A few years ago Kruger had built a new house on Church street opposite the Dutch Reformed church, where he sometimes preaches. The new house is far from being a mansion. In fact, it is much less pretentious than the homes of many of the well to do burghers. It is such a house as an American millionaire might build for his coachman or head gardener.

An iron railing, with stone pillars, is in front of the house, which is protected from the sun by a veranda. Between the railings and the veranda, right and left of the entrance, couch two stone lions, the gift of the late Mr. B. J. Barnato.

The president's house is simply furnished, for he does not care for pomp. Much furniture he does not need since his favorite spot is the "stoop." Here he may be found early in the day till 8 o'clock and again from half past 5 till sunset.

The visitor would probably find Mrs. Kruger sitting there with her knitting. If she was not in sight, where do you suppose she would be? At a meeting of the Browning club, at a foreign missionary meeting? Not at all. She would be in the kitchen preparing the "kaffe clatch" or baking "der brode" or scrubbing the floors.

It is said that the Krugers' household expenses are more than met by the $2,000 allowed the president as "coffee money." The $35,000 salary is added to his ever increasing bank account.

Where all the Kruger fortune will go goodness knows! There are some American Krugers and residents of Chicago and relatives of the Boer president who expect to get some of it.

A correspondent who recently interviewed Mr. Kruger writes, "As he closed our interview Mr. Kruger went across the hall into a low ceilinged, whitewashed room and leaned for a moment over a placid faced, motherly little woman who was seated on a rocking chair darning stockings. This was Mrs. Kruger, who, though one never hears of her, interested me mightily, because she seemed so utterly oblivious to the turmoils that are besetting her husband's nation."

Mrs. Kruger is a second wife. She was a Miss Du Plessis, a name of prominence in South Africa. Kruger's first wife was an aunt of Miss Du Plessis and bore him one son, who died. Sixteen children were the fruit of this second marriage, and of those seven are living. The girls are comfortably married to burghers in and about Pretoria, and the boys take an active interest in the army.

TAKING THE REINS.

Roberta A, 2:20, a new 2:30 trotter, is a sister to Bermotta, 2:06¾.

In the free for all at Hookstown, Pa., the other day Abee Nims lowered the track record to 2:19¼.

Tonita F, 2:11¾, is another Iowa product that is doing well this year. She has won nine straight races.

W. V. Baker's bay mare Miss Haley, 2:24¼, holds the Columbus (O.) wagon record, having trotted a mile at that style of going in 2:21.

Sunland Belle was recently hooked to sulky at Cleveland, and when she got used to the light rig stepped a mile in 2:08, last half in 1:03.

Ethel R. by Redfield, who won the 2:26 trot at the Rockport (O.) meeting, was bought two years ago for $26. She cost Henry Sanders $850 a few weeks ago.

The gray gelding Who Is It, by Nutwood Wilkes, made his first start of the season in the 2:12 trot at Readville and took a record of 2:10½ in the first heat.

Red Star stepped the second heat of the free for all at Bainbridge, Ind., Aug. 17 in 2:12¼, reducing his record a quarter of a second and breaking the track record.

Rustic, the gelding that had such an easy thing in the 2:35 trot and pace at Goshen, N. Y., was recently sold for $75 and up to a short time ago pulled a butcher's delivery wagon.

Arrigle is yet unidentified and after winning the first heat of the 2:33 trot at Auburn, N. Y., in handy fashion was ruled out, owing to his owner not being able to identify the horse.

Idolita and Mamie W, winners of first and second moneys respectively in the New England Futurity and both Palo Alto bred ones, went through the Fasig sale in Cleveland a year ago.

Paola, 2:18, registered as Lone Pine, full brother to Palo Alto, 2:08¾; Altivo, 2:18½, etc., is now in the Great Table, his daughter Precita having taken a record of 2:26. This gives Dame Winnie another producer of speed.—Horseman.

WHAT MACHINERY DOES.

Fertilizing an acre with [illegible] and shovel takes 50 hours, [illegible] a modern drill the same work is done in an hour.

A machine for making umbrella covers does in 20 minutes the work that formerly required 4 hours and 29 minutes by hand.

Sewing the vamps on 100 pairs of women's fine shoes takes 10 hours by machine as compared with 100 hours by hand.

One acre of oats is harvested with a self binder in two hours as against 16 hours and 40 minutes using a sickle and cradle.

One thousand paper bags, which formerly took 6 hours and 20 minutes to make by hand, are now turned out finished by a machine in 20 minutes.

With a machine that reaps, thrashes and sacks the wheat in one operation, an acre is thus treated in 52 minutes, that required 48 hours and 40 minutes by the old method.

The modern gangplow turns up an acre of land for wheat in one hour as compared with five to eight hours when work is done with oxen drawing an ordinary steel plow.

It takes 12 minutes to thoroughly harrow an acre of ground with the modern disk harrow as compared with 2½ hours using a brush cut from a treetop and drawn by oxen, as was the custom of the early settlers.

ORCHARD AND GARDEN.

Plenty of side shoots shade the trunk of the tree.

With fruit trees true beauty should be associated with vitality.

In transplating save all the roots possible and spread them out naturally and well.

Keep a lookout for the borer. A twisted wire will usually reach him if he is in the stem of the tree.

To make the most out of the garden keep every spot occupied during the growing season with a crop.

In growing fruits some distance from market it is always best to grow such varieties as will keep well and bear transportation.

One of the advantages in fall planting is that in nearly all cases there is then more time to do the work and it may be done more carefully. This is always an important item in transplanting.

Many good growers prefer to bud so late in the season that the inserted buds will lie dormant during the winter. If budded early, they grow and the new wood does not have time to ripen well for winter.—Exchange.

ANIMAL ODDITIES.

In the African elephant both sexes have ivory tusks, while in the Asiatic they are generally restricted to the male.

The wild horses of Arabia will not admit a tame horse among them, while the wild horses of South America endeavor to decoy domesticated horses from their masters and seem eager to welcome them.

The bee of Mexico does not "improve each shining hour." As there is very little cold weather there, no necessity exists for laying in winter stores of honey, and the bee is therefore as lazy as a cockroach.

The speed of an otter under water is amazing. Fish have no chance against them. In some places in India otters are kept by the natives to fish for them. They are tied up to stakes like dogs when not working, wear plaited straw collars and seem happy.

THE HOME DOCTOR.

Thin, nervous women require ten hours' sleep every night.

For earache apply a good sized linseed meal poultice, hot, with eight or ten drops of laudanum dropped in the middle. This will usually cure the most severe earache.

In convulsions of children apply cold to the head and heat to the body. A warm mustard bath is excellent. Camphor may be held to the nostrils, and sometimes chloroform is used with good results.

A stubborn attack of hiccoughs will almost invariably yield if a drop of oil of cassia (cinnamon) on a piece of sugar is given to the sufferer every 10 or 15 minutes. It has been proved effective when all other remedies have failed.

The Demand for Champagne.

The total demand of the world for champagne is about 22,000,000 bottles annually, a demand which can be readily met for some years to come by the supplies held in stock in the vast cool cellars at Rheims, where one noted firm alone keeps a standing reserve of 9,000,000 bottles.

CORONER HELD POST MORTEM

REMAINS OF MRS. CAMPBELL WERE DISINTERRED.

Examination Held Tuesday Shows the Fracture of the Skull to be a Very Extensive One.

Under orders from the officials Coroner W. W. Barnett went to the Notestine cemetery Tuesday afternoon, and disinterred the remains of Mrs. John Campbell, who died from injuries received in a fall from a wagon a short time ago, the particulars of which are still fresh in the minds of the readers of The Sentinel.

A post mortem examination was then held by Dr. C. E. Barnett and revealed a very extensive fracture of the skull. The fracture extended through the right temporal region, forward to the outer angle of the eye, then through the roof of the orbital cavity and the floor of the cranial cavity, through the body of the sphenoid bone to the internal ear of the left side.

Dr. Barnett says the fracture was one of the most extensive that ever came under his observation. The coroner has not yet returned his verdict in the case. The news of the examination Tuesday spread rapidly about the adjacent country and quite a crowd gathered at the cemetery to witness it.

TWENTY-SIXTH INFANTRY ARRIVED ON THE GRANT

AND HAS SAILED FOR ILOILO

CAPTAIN HOWARD'S BODY IS PLACED ON BELGIAN KING.

A HEAVY RAIN AT SAN ISIDRO

SUPPLIES ARRIVING IN CASCOES FOR THE NATIVES.

Washington, Oct. 25.—The war department has received the following from General Otis:

Manila, Oct. 25.—Transport Grant, Twenty-sixth volunteers and recruits, arrived yesterday. No casualties. Aztec with civilian employes arrived this morning. Seven horses lost. All others in good condition.

CAPTAIN HOWARD'S FUNERAL.

Manila, Oct. 5.—5:55 p. m.—The funeral of Captain Guy Howard, the assistant quartermaster, son of Major General O. O. Howard, retired, who was killed October 22, near Arayat, took place today and was largely attended. A procession of troops escorted the body to the wharf and placed it on board the transport Belgian King.

The Twenty-sixth infantry arrived here on the transport Grant yesterday and sailed for Iloilo today without disembarking.

The insurgents have returned to the vicinity of Calamba. They have increased in numbers and are surrounding the town on the land side.

At San Isidro thirty hours rain has raised the river and supplies are arriving there in the cascoes of the natives. The health of the returning columns is excellent.

THE POSTAL SERVICE IN CUBA

COL. RATHBONE SAYS THAT IT HAS BEEN REORGANIZED.

The Two-Cent Stamp Has Increased Inland Correspondence—The Clerks.

New York, Oct. 25.—Col. E. G. Rathbone, who is in charge of the postal service in Cuba, arrived from Havana today on the steamship Havana.

He says the postal service of Cuba, which was in a very bad condition, has been thoroughly reorganized. Among the new features introduced are the registry and money order divisions, both of which have been in successful operation since April.

"The bankers and merchants of Cuba," said Colonel Rathbone, "now send remittances averaging at least $150,000 a day, and there has been sent to the United States alone over $200,000,000 in remittances. Both Spaniards and Cubans give evidence of the utmost confidence in the money order department. We have now introduced the two-cent stamp and in consequence the bulk of inland correspondence has greatly increased. Of the 600 clerks employed on the island by the postoffice department fully 500 are Cubans and I am hiring Americans only where absolutely necessary, this being the policy of the administration."

DENBY VISITED M'KINLEY.

Washington, Oct. 25.—Col. Charles Denby, of the Philippine commission, had a conference with the president today that lasted about an hour and a half, but declined to make any statement for publication. The commission will meet probably tomorrow, as Professors Schurman and Worcester are expected here today. Colonel Denby said that he did not think the commission would experience any difficulty in agreeing upon their recommendations.

CLARENCE COOK COMING.

Clarence F. Cook, who has been in the Klondike ever since last January, arrived in Chicago this afternoon and will reach this city tomorrow. Mrs. Cook went to Chicago this morning to meet her husband and accompany him home.

FAVORS THE TAX.

Dr. W. W. Shryock telephones The Sentinel that he observes from the city papers that he has been placed on a committee to protest against the vehicle license ordinance. Dr. Shryock says he is unable to understand how he came to be named, and that as he is in favor of the tax, he is inclined to doubt the expediency of his appointment on the committee.

LOWERED HIS RECORD.

Frank Bogash, the great little pacer, lowered his record Tuesday. He was started against his record of 2:04¼ and unpaced went the mile in 2:04. The horse is reported to be in better condition and faster now than at any time during the season. He was one of the first horses to take the track this summer and will be about the last to retire.

RECRUITING OFFICE TO CLOSE

NEXT MONDAY THE LAST DAY FOR ENLISTMENT.

Volunteer Regiments Are Filled and Fort Wayne Station Will Be Discontinued.

Lieutenant Rowell arrived last evening from Indianapolis, and administered the oath to two Fort Wayne young men who have enlisted in the cavalry branch of the United States army. They were George A. Ludington and Stewart A. Wortman, and the new soldiers left at 10 o'clock for Indianapolis.

The lieutenant announced that the Fort Wayne recruiting office would go out of existence next Tuesday, October 31, and those who desire to enlist in this city must come forward before that date. The reason assigned for the move is that the office was established for the enlistment of volunteers, and as the volunteer regiments are filled there is no longer need of maintaining it. Only one recruiting station for the regular army is maintained in the state, and that is at Indianapolis.

The Fort Wayne office was opened July 15, and has been constantly in charge of Sergeant Stewart. About 150 men have been sent forward for all branches of the service since July and Indianapolis is the only office in Indiana that has equaled this record.

ONE MORE MAIL CARRIER.

Frank Horstman was some time ago reinstated as substitute mail carrier, but declined to accept the position. Theodore Horstman, an influential relative, who resides in Cincinnati, used his influence with the post office authorities at Washington and dispatches announce that he has been ordered reinstated at full duty and to do this Postmaster Page will be authorized to add one more carrier to the regular force.

ARE NOT WHIPPED

GENERAL JOUBERT CLOSE TO HEELS OF BRITISH.

LADYSMITH SCENE OF FIGHT

BRITISH FORCED TO EVACUATE NATAL TRIANGLE.

GEN. WHITE REPELS ADVANCE

BOERS DO DEADLY EXECUTION AMONG OFFICERS.

London, Oct. 25.—A special dispatch from Cape Town, dated 9:10 this morning, says there has been another battle at Ladysmith and that the Boers were repulsed. The British casualties were placed at four killed and seven wounded, all rank and file.

BRITISH LOSES AT LADYSMITH.

London, Oct. 25.—General White has telegraphed to the war office from Rietfontein, under date of October 24, saying that in the fighting near Ladysmith twelve of the British force were killed and eighty-nine wounded, and that five are missing, the casualties being mostly among the Lancaster regiment.

A special dispatch from Ladysmith, dated October 23, says the troop of the Eighteenth Hussars, which got astray in pursuing the Boers after the battle of Glencoe, has arrived at Ladysmith, the troopers having fought their way through with the loss of three horses.

LIST OF CASUALTIES.

London, Oct. 25.—The war office this evening issued the following:

There is nothing to add to General White's description of today's engagement, as given in his dispatch, except that we now learn the following casualties:

First Gloucester—Col. Willford, killed.

Wounded—Lieutenant Hickie; Second battery, field artillery, Lieutenant Douglass; Fifty-third battery, field artillery, Major Abdyl, Lieutenant Perau, Lieutenant Hobart; Nineteenth Hussars, Lieutenant Holford.

The following casualties occurred among the non-commissioned officers and men:

Nineteenth Hussars—Killed, 1; wounded, 25.

Fifth Lanciers—Wounded, 1; artillery, wounded, 5; First Devonshire regiment, killed, 1; wounded, 5; First Gloucester regiment, killed, 7; wounded, 22; missing, 3; Natal volunteers, Carbiners, killed, 1; wounded, 10; Natal mounted rifles, wounded, 52; border mounted rifles, killed, 2; wounded, 10.

Total number of casualties as corrected is: Killed, 13; wounded, 93; missing, 3.

We learn from unofficial sources that the following officers, whose absence had not previously been notified to us, are prisoners in the enemy's hands:

Eighteenth Hussars — Lieutenant Colonel Moller, Major Greville and Captain Pollock.

Highland Fusileers—Captain Lonsdale, Lieutenant Leemeseurier, Lieutenant Garvice, Lieutenant Grimshaw, Lieutenant Majedine and Lieutenant Shore.

It is presumed that the whole squadron of the Eighteenth Hussars under the command of the officers named were taken prisoners.

YULE THREE MILES AWAY.

London, Oct. 25.—The war office this evening made public the dispatch sent by General White from Ladysmith at 3:50 this afternoon:

"The advance guard of the forces sent out by me this morning to get in touch with and help General Yule's column was within three miles of that column, which had temporarily halted at Sunday river about noon Sunday. I have occupied all the strong positions on the road to Ladysmith and I have no further anxiety about them. I have received from Lieutenant Kenrick, signalling officer of the Queen's regiment, who had ridden in, and also from Colonel Dartnell, of the Natal police, who accompanied the column, the best account of the spirits and efficiency of the troops, who are very anxious to meet the enemy again."

REPORTS DOCTORED.

London, Oct. 25.—The commander-in-chief, Field Marshal Lord Wolseley, has apparently been now convicted of "doctoring" official reports from the front and there is a universal demand on all sides for a reversion to the earlier practice, when the reports of General Sir George Stewart White, the British commander in Natal, were given out textually as soon as received. The commander-in-chief's summary read in the house of commons yesterday spoke of General White having fought a successful action, whereas General White's own account puts an entirely different complexion on the situation and reduces the movement to its proper proportions and shows that further exciting intelligence may be expected from the same quarter at any moment. It is quite evident that the war in Natal has only commenced and that the Boers are by no means discouraged at losing the first two battles, and many experts are satisfied that General Jourbert is even now close to the heels of the British and that a decisive action may be fought today or tomorrow.

The main fact that the British were forced to evacuate the Natal triangle, which the Boers, naturally, rightly claim as a conspicuous success and which they may even emphasize by a proclamation annexing north Natal, is proving an unpalatable pill to the public, whose appetite had been whetted by the previous successes, which had been assumed to be greater than they really were, as the determination and gallantry of the Boers enabled them to quickly reorganize and achieve desired objects by other methods.

BOERS COOL AND BRAVE.

Later estimates of the Boer losses at Elandslaagte give three hundred killed. Their coolness, bravery and good aim can be judged from the fact that out of seventeen or eighteen officers with the half battalion of Gordon Highlanders four were killed and thirteen were wounded, while the casualties among the rank and file were 37 per cent. during less than three hours fighting. Lieutenant Campbell, of the Gordon Highlanders, has since died from his wounds.

A dispatch from Cape Town today says that General White has engaged the Orange Free State Boers who were advancing on Ladysmith, about seven miles northward, and that it was believed the advance had been repelled. This is probably another version of yesterday's fighting, as already known.

Other dispatches from Cape Town say that advices from Mafeking confirm the statement that fifty Boers were killed by the explosion of two trucks of dynamite purposely sent out by Colonel Baden-Powell to draw the Boer fire.

The offer of General Cronje, the Boer commander in the vicinity of Mafeking, to Colonel Baden-Powell to exchange prisoners, referred to Captain Nesbitt and others of the armored train wrecked at Kraapian.

Some significance is attached at Cape Town to the proclamation issued at Pretoria by the Transvaal with the view to safeguard British property.

The situation in the west is becoming complicated. The Boer proclamations of annexation and claims of a victory at Glencoe may induce the Dutch to side with their countrymen already in the field. It is said, for instance, that the Boer forces have evacuated Vryburg, which, it is added, will be garrisoned by the local Dutch, among whom are prominent bundites and government employes. It is also believed that the Dutch beyond Griquantown are only awaiting encouragement to declare for the Transvaal.

KIMBERLEY IS INTACT.

Advices from Phillipstown yesterday say that the searchlights of the Kimberley defenses are visible throughout the night and that, therefore, Kimberley is still intact. The latest dispatch from Kimberley gives details of the arrangements made by the British commander, Colonel Kekewiche, for the defense of the town.

The meat consumption is limited to a pound daily. A sire brigade has been formed and its members are prohibited from joining in the defense of the place, as their services are likely to be otherwise required. The townsfolk are working ungrudgingly, notwithstanding sleepless nights and the absence of assistance. Miles of barbed wire surround the town. The Boers remain out of reach of the bullets.

A dispatch from Maseru, dated October 24, says Commissary Ingdon was then starting to meet Lerothodi and other Basuto chiefs at Putiatsuz river, where the chiefs have assembled at the request of Lerothodi to pledge their loyalty to the queen.

THE BOER FORCES.

According to a Brussels dispatch, Dr. Leyds, the diplomatic agent of the Transvaal in Europe, has issued a statement that the Boers have now nearly 100,000 men in the field, made up as follows:

Boer regulars, 35,000; artillery,

ALL GIVE THANKS.

PRESIDENT M'KINLEY ISSUES HIS PROCLAMATION.

FIXING THURSDAY, NOV. 30

AS A DAY OF GENERAL THANKSGIVING AND PRAYER.

PEACE HAS BEEN RATIFIED

RELATIONS ARE FRIENDLY WITH POWERS OF EARTH.

Washington, Oct. 25.—The president today issued the following Thanksgiving proclamation:

"A national custom dear to the hearts of the people calls for the setting apart of one day in each year as an occasion of special thanksgiving to Almighty God for the blessings of the preceding year. This honored observance acquires with time a tenderer significance. It enriches domestic life. It summons under the family roof the absent children to glad reunion with those they love. Seldom has this nation had greater cause for profound thanksgiving. No great pestilence has invaded our shores. Liberal employment waits upon labor. Abundant crops have rewarded the efforts of the husbandman. Increased comforts have come to the home. The national finances have been strengthened and public credit has been sustained and made firmer. In all branches of industry and trade there has been an unequalled degree of prosperity, while there has been a steady gain in the moral and educational growth of our national character. Churches and schools have flourished. American patriotism has been exalted. Those engaged in maintaining the honor of the flag with such signal success have been in a large degree spared from disaster and disease. An honorable peace has been ratified with a foreign nation with which we were at war and we are now on friendly relations with every power on earth. The trust which we have assumed for the benefit of the people of Cuba has been faithfully advanced. There is marked progress toward restoration of healthy industrial conditions, and under wise sanitary regulations the island has enjoyed unusual exemption from the scourge of fever. The hurricane which swept over our new possession of Porto Rico, destroying the homes and property of the inhabitans, called forth the instant sympathy of the people of the United States who were swift to respond with generous aid to the sufferers. While the insurrection still continues in the island of Luzon, business is resuming its activity and confidence in the good purposes of the United States is being rapidly established throughout the archipelago.

"For these reasons and countless others, I, William McKinley, president of the United States, do hereby name Thursday, the thirtieth day of November, next, as a day of general thanksgiving and prayer, to be observed as such by all our people on this continent and in our newly acquired islands, as well as by those who may be at sea or sojourning in foreign lands, and I advise that on this day religious exercises shall be conducted in the churches or meeting places of all denominations in order that in the social features of the day its real significance may not be lost sight of, but fervent prayers may be offered to the Most High for a continuance of the divine guidance, without which man's efforts are vain, and for divine consolation to those whose kindred and friends have sacrificed their lives for country.

"I recommend also that on this day, so far as may be found practicable labor shall cease from its accustomed toil and charity abound toward the sick, the needy and the poor.

"In witness whereof I have set my hand and caused the seal of the United States to be affixed.

"William McKinley."

DEBS TO REVIVE HIS UNION.

Terre Haute, Ind., Oct. 25.—The American Railway union may be revived. The organization, which virtually expired in 1894 at the close of the greatest strike in history, may be nursed back to life by Eugene V. Debs, its founder. A delegation of railway brotherhood men and labor leaders met with Debs before he left for the west on his lecturing tour and he promised to consider the matter and give his answer upon his return to his home in this city. The reason for the proposed reorgnnization is the lack of harmony which exists between the railway unions and which the railroads are said to be taking advantage of. It is believed here that Debs will undertake the work.

MRS. ELIZA MARKEY CALLED TO ETERNAL REST.

Expired This Morning From Paralysis—Had Lived in Fort Wayne Over Forty Years.

Mrs. Eliza Markey, who for forty-one years had been a resident of this city, died at 10:50 o'clock this morning at the home of her son, Richard F. Markey, 414 South Calhoun street, from paralysis.

Mrs. Markey had reached the age of seventy years and had been in poor health for some time. She was a native of Dublin, Ireland, and came to America forty-nine years ago. She was united in marriage in New York to Lawrence Markey, who has been dead about four years. Two sons survive her—Richard F. Markey, assistant bookkeeper at the First National bank, and George Markey, who resides in Michigan.

Mrs. Markey was a devoted member of St. Patrick's church and a most estimable lady, with a large number of friends. The funeral announcement will be made later.

Section 1. That it shall be unlawful for any person or corporation doing business in this state to manufacture, sell or offer to sell any article, compound or preparation for the purpose of being used or which is intended to be used in the preparation of food, in which article, compound or preparation there is any arsenic, calomel, bismuth, ammonia or alum.

Sec. 2. Any person or corporation violating the provisions of this act shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and shall, upon conviction, be fined not less than one hundred dollars, which shall be paid into and become a part of the road fund of the county in which such fine is collected.

KASSON TALKS ON EXPANSION

PHILIPPINES PROMISE MORE THAN OTHER ACQUISITIONS.

He Defended the Right of the Country to Maintain Control of the Islands.

Philadelphia, Oct. 25. — Today's session of the International Commercial congress at the national export exposition was officially designated as "Exposition Day" and a number of speakers addressed the delegates on that question as it related to the development of the commerce of the countries of the world. Congressman Robert Adams, jr., of this city, former United States minister to Brazil, presided. In presenting the scope of the deliberations Mr. Adams referred to the weakness of the consular service of this country, laying the blame upon the system and not the administration of it.

John A. Kesson, of Iowa, special commissioner plenopotentiary for treaties of reciprocity of the United tates, then spoke on the subject of commercial and territorial expansion.

Mr. Kasson reviewed briefly the acquisition of territory by the United States from Louisiana to the Hawaiian Islands, and the conquest of Porto Rico. Referring to the Philippines acquisition, he declared it promised greater immediate advantages than any of the others. He said: "We already know something of the enormous capacity of the Philippines for agricultural production of tropical wealth. Of its mineral wealth we know less, but the indications are of the highest significance, not only of the baser metals, but also of the most valuable." Mr. Kasson concluded with a defense of the right of this country in maintaining control of the Philippines.

DAVITT WILL RESIGN.

London, Oct. 25.—Michael Davitt, Irish nationalist, member for South Mayo, announced in the house of commons today that he would resign tomorrow as a protest against the Boer war.

Mr. Davitt denounced the jingo press and said that the war for the meanest and most mercenary aims would be known as the greatest crime of the century. He declared that if he had been offered home rule and an Irish republic he would not have accepted them if accompanied by the condition that he vote for the war. As a protest he would ask to be relieved from attendance in the house. He had been in the house five years trying to obtain justice for Ireland, and he left it convinced that "no cause of justice and right would have the support of the house unless backed by force."

The ladies of the Wayne street M. E. church will be entertained Thursday afternoon at a thimble party at the home of Mrs. Tibbles, of 177 Griffith street.

POLICY IS RIGHT.

BISHOP DOANE SUPPORTS THE ADMINISTRATION.

WERE FOUR ALTERNATIVES

AND THE PROPER ONE WAS TAKEN BY M'KINLEY.

DENBY CALLED ON PRESIDENT

DECLINED TO MAKE STATEMENT FOR PUBLICATION.

St. Louis, Mo., Oct. 25.—Bishop Doane, of Albany, N. Y., in his address before the Protestant Episcopal Missionary council now in session here, supported the policy of the administration in taking the Philippines under national protection. He said:

"To my mind, there were but four unalterable alternatives. We were obliged either to leave the islands under Spanish control, for a renewal of hostilities; we were obliged to leave them to destroy themselves in intercine strife; we could have left them to be fought over by European nations, or we could have assumed the position of protectors of the islands. I see no other conclusion, and the fourth alternative was the only one which ought to have been taken. We did it, and this great trust must be administered."

Missionaries from Cuba and Porto Rico presented the needs of the people of those islands and after some discussion it was decided to send a bishop to the latter island.

Many people witnessed the affair, but could not interfere in time to save either. The couple leave nine children.

GAVE A SWORD TO SAMPSON

A TOKEN FROM THE CITIZENS OF NEW JERSEY.

Governor Voorhees Made the Presentation Speech and Complimented the Admiral.

Trenton, N. J., Oct. 25.—Admiral Sampson arrived at 6 o'clock today, preparatory to the ceremonies incident to the sword presentation by the state of New Jersey later in the day. He was accompanied by Mrs. Sampson.

The admiral and Mrs. Sampson were met at the station by Colonel Thompson, of the governor's staff, and Colonel Oliphant, assistant adjutant general of the state. The party were driven to Colonel Oliphant's residence, where breakfast was served. Shortly after 10 o'clock the admiral visited the state house, where he was received by Governor Voorhees. The admiral went to the state industrial school for girls, where he was presented with a flag by Miss Helen Parker, granddaughter of the late Governor Parker.

The formal ceremonies of presenting Admiral Sampson with the sword began with an address of Senator Ketcham, chairman of the joint committee. He said that the high state of efficiency of the American navy was due to Admiral Sampson's skill and ability more than to any other individual. The sword, he said, would be presented by the governor to the admiral through whose skillful invention and wise leadership our naval victories were largely due.

Governor Voorhees, in making the formal presentation, said that it was his plensant duty and great privilege to present the sword as the cheerful gift of the people of a patriotic state, with whom Admiral Sampson had for a long time his home. The people of New Jersey, the governor said, were proud of the admiral's services and remembered his distinguished accomplishments in time of peace. "The plan of battle which conquered the Spanish fleet," concluded the governor, "was matured by your quiet study and consummate skill and was carried out by your fleet without a single error."

A few weeks ago Judge O'Rourke suspended a sixty-day jail sentence against Reprogle. Humane Officer Schlandroff will make an affidavit against the young man and the authorities will request Judge O'Rourke to lift the suspension and allow the young man to serve the sixty days.

FIRST DECISION OF ITS KIND

DAKOTA JUDGE DIRECTS JURY TO ACQUIT BANKER.

He Had Been Charged With Making False Returns to Comptroller of Currency.

Fargo, N. D., Oct. 25.—The case of former State Treasurer Lee Booker came to a sudden termination in the United States court today by Judge Amidon directing the jury to bring in a verdict of acquittal.

An error in the indictment drawn by former United States District Attorney Bangs was the cause of Judge Amidon's action. The indictment charged Booker with making false returns to the comptroller of the currency as to the amount of money on hand on certain days while he was president of the Grand Forks National bank.

Judge Amidon held that Booker should have been indicted for aiding and abetting in making false returns, as he merely signed the statement as prepared and submitted by employes of the bank and did not direct the false statements. There is another case against Booker charging embezzlement, which will come up at this term of court.

Judge Amidon's decision in the Booker case is the first one in the United States courts bearing directly on the point of the guilt of bank officials in signing an order or statement prepared by others.

At the close of the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Davidson went immediately to a pretty home they have fitted up at 8 Summit street. Countless friends will extend best wishes to the young people.

The marriage of Frederick W. Clements and Miss Catherine Hinga was solemnized at 8:30 o'clock Tuesday evening at the home of Mrs. Davis, 28 Melita street, Rev. J. W. Lake officiating. Mr. Clements is a prominent young farmer south of the city and his bride is a resident of this city. Mrs. Davis, at whose home the wedding was solemnized, is a sister of the bride. Mr. and Mrs. Clements have taken up their residence at the country home of the groom, with the warmest congratulations of many friends.

MISS LULU ARCHER HURT.

Miss Lulu Archer is confined to her home on Putnam street as the result of injuries received in a perilous experience on the Wells street bridge about 6 o'clock Tuesday evening. Miss Archer was riding her wheel and was passing a farmer's wagon to which a cow was tied just as a street car approached. The cow swung around to the side, knocking Miss Archer and her wheel in front of the car. The motorman was alert and stopped his car as soon as possible, but not until the car had struck the bicycle in which Miss Archer was entangled and dragged it some distance. The young lady was severely bruised, but no bones were broken, and altogether it was a most fortunate escape for her.

BOERS HAVE BEEN MISLED.

A special dispatch from Pretoria, via Lorenzo Marquez, dated October 24, purports to give an interview with one of the highest Transvaal executives, who is quoted as having urged that, while the Boer successes were yet unimportant, there was still time for an amicable settlement, as he believed the Boers had been misled as to the real issue.

GEN. SYMONS DOING WELL.

Cape Town, Oct. 25.—Intelligence received here yesterday from Natal says the bullet has been extracted from the wound of General Symons, who was struck down while leading his troops at the battle of Glencoe, and that the patient is cheerful and doing well.

Advices from Orange River, Cape Colony, near the Orange Free State border, announce that the Boers have taken Kripdam, near Barkley West, north of Kimberley, and that Assistant Magistrate Harmsworth and his clerk are prisoners. It is supposed that the Boers are advancing on Douglas, further west, the inhabitants of which place are asking for protection.

A LITTLE BATTLE.

London, Oct. 25.—A dispatch to the Morning Post from Kimberley, dated October 21, via Orange River October 24, says:

"An armored train was engaged this evening. One of our men was killed and two trucks of dynamite were removed from the town for safety and were blown up by the Boers. The Boer loss is uncertain. The Boer artilley moved around, trying to draw the force covering the town. There was a small engagement, but nothing of consequence happened. We are completely isolated, but as safe as a bank. Not one man has left. Rain is approaching. Our troops met the enemy cutting the line today and the Maxim gun on the train did great work and cleared away the wreckers."

BOERS DETERMINED.

The London Standard's special correspondent with the forces at Ladysmith, who was captured by the Boers and released at the battle of Elandslaagte, in describing his experiences, says:

"Unsoldierly as the Boers might seem there is no mistaking their physical fitness. Nearly all of them are strong, powerfully built men, while a few are veritable giants. They were all in high spirits; for instance, on the night of our capture our field cornet was induced to preside over an impromptu street concert. It was amusing to see a Johannesburger playing the piano with his gun still strung over his shoulder, while his more rusty comrades stood around spellbound. They sang, "Transvaal Volkllied," with immense fervor. The one object of their talk was their resolute determination to fight to the last for the independence of their country."

A veritable fortune, it is said, is gathered for the sultan from the wrecks of the battle of Smyrnia. Since 1770 a number of Russian and Turkish ships have rested at the bottom of the sea. These are now being investigated and the ship of the Russian admiral alone has yielded over $250,000 in coin, besides silverware and jewels.

Others may not have light covert overcoats, but Patterson has just what you want, at just the price you want to pay.

GOOD BEDDING.

How to Care For This Necessary Household Equipment.

In the purchase of factory mattresses one cannot be too careful in selection. The greatest deception is practiced in the make up of many of them, and when worn out and ripped apart one will shrink from and shudder in looking upon the filthy looking materials that all unconsciously they have been sleeping upon, supposing themselves to have owned the good mattress that they paid for, but evidently did not get.

A bed is not quite complete without its overmattress. This is made a little narrower and shorter than the mattress proper and is very like a comforter. Four or five pounds of good cotton is sufficient. More could be used, but it were economy and much better to make new ones oftener rather than ones so heavy. Measure twice the length that the mattress is desired to be, pin or tack one half of the length to the quilting frames, with the other half hanging over the edge of one of the end pieces, spread the cotton in layers, first lengthwise of the frames and then across, alternating the direction of laying it until it is all in place, bring over the second half and pin into place and, with darning needles and knitting cotton or twine, knot in squares of equal distances and run the edges of upper and under cloth together.

Underneath the under or large factory mattress and next the wire spring always stretch and fasten a thick muslin springs cover. This saves the undermattress from wear and the soil of dust. Over both mattresses if were well, if one has partly worn quilts to spare, especially for everyday use, to spread one of them to protect them. The quilt is more easily washed at frequent intervals than are the overmattresses.

Mix into firm batter with the milk and pour into greased tin. Bake in moderate oven 40 minutes. Cover with paper 25 minutes.

How to Care For Silverware.

Any kind of plate in daily use may be cleaned by immersion in strong borax and water for two or three hours. The water should be boiling when the borax and silver are put in. After the plate is dry rub with a little silver powder and polish with chamois. If silver ornaments in the drawing room are not kept in a case, they soon tarnish. They can be brightened by dipping the articles in a strong solution of ammonia and hot water. Silver should never be rubbed with flannel or cotton cloth. The plate not in general use should be wrapped carefully in tissue paper to exclude light and air, as these are the two factors that cause silver to tarnish.

How to Cure Red Acne.

Rosewater, 250 grams; spirits of camphor, 30 grams; powdered sulphur, 20 grams; pulverized senegal gum, 8 grams. Apply to the affected parts with a small sponge three or four times a day. The little yellow powder which will remain on the face after the lotion has dried should be left as long as possible.

How to Clean Ivory.

Piano keys and ivory knife handles should be cleaned with alcohol. Twice a week rub the keys of a piano with a clean cloth wet with alcohol, and they will always look well. A solution of two-thirds alcohol and one-third sweet oil will take ink stains from wood, but if they are fresh stains and not large it is well before trying the above recipe to take a soft cloth, breathe upon the stain, rub gently while the spot is damp, and it will rub out without any trouble.

How to Make Milk Soup.

Milk soup is very useful when there is no stock to convert into soup and the fish course is not to be boiled. Take a quart of milk and boil it slowly with an onion and a blade of mace. Rub an egg into two ounces of flour until it is in fine crumbs and then stir slowly into boiling milk. Season with pepper and salt.

How to Bake Oysters.

Boil a small onion, chopped very fine, in the liquor of one quart of oysters. Chop the oysters, but not very fine, and add to the liquor and onion with a teacupful of cream, a little mace, a cup of fine cracker crumbs, a tablespoonful of Worcestershire sauce and salt to taste. Cook five minutes and then thicken with a full teaspoonful of cornstarch thickened with a little milk. Let the mixture cool and then fill the shells and cover with fine cracker crumbs and little bits of butter. Bake until nicely browned.

How to Make Tooth Wash.

Spirits of wine, half a pint; borax, 2 drams; honey, 2 drams; gum myrrh, 1 dram; red sanders wood, 1 dram. Rub the honey and borax together in a mortar, add the spirit gradually and then the myrrh and sanders wood and allow it to stand 14 days, then strain. It is a good plan to rinse the mouth out at bedtime with water to which a few drops of permanganate of potash have been added. It keeps the mouth pure and sweet.

How to Preserve Eggs.

Eggs may be kept as good as new for months if they are smeared all over, the day they are laid, with glycerin.

Perfect Piano Making

must always come before perfect piano playing.

The greatest musician in the world cannot do justice to himself upon a poor instrument. Paderewski himself could not get music out of a tin pan.

The Packard Piano has the indorsement not only of the average music loving man and woman, but also of artists and famous musicians.

It is well and correctly made.

Scrofula, a Vile Inheritance.

Scrofula is the most obstinate of blood troubles, and is often the result of an inherited taint in the blood. S. S. S. is the only remedy which goes deep enough to reach Scrofula; it forces out every trace of the disease, and cures the worst cases.

My son, Charlie, was afflicted from infancy with Scrofula, and he suffered so that it was impossible to dress him for three years. His head and body were a mass of sores, and his eyesight also became affected. No treatment was spared that we thought would relieve him, but he grew worse until his condition was indeed pitiable. I had almost despaired of his ever being cured, when by the advice of a friend we gave him S. S. S. (Swift's Specific). A decided improvement was the result, and after he had taken a dozen bottles, no one who knew of his former dreadful condition would have recognized him. All the sores on his body have healed, his skin is perfectly clear and smooth, and he has been restored to perfect health.
MRS. S. S. MABRY,
900 Elm St., Macon, Ga.

For real blood troubles it is a waste of time to expect a cure from the doctors. Blood diseases are beyond their skill. Swift's Specific, reaches all deep-seated cases which other remedies have no effect upon. It is the only blood remedy guaranteed purely vegetable, and contains no potash, mercury, or other mineral.

Forty of the farmers have already erected mail boxes and a large number of others have been ordered. It seems to have become a settled belief in parts of this country that the way to whoop up a campaign is to take the hoops off of barrels.

Honors fall thick and fast in the neighborhood of General Bates. He is to be a made a major general, and, not long ago, the sultaness dowager, of Sulu, presented him with a pair of red breeches that formerly had been worn by her second husband. Happy Bates!

Australia is springing another novelty in the science of government. The novelty is a scheme of taxation which has been devised for the federation which has been formed of all the Australian colonies. It is proposed that the municipalities, the subdivisions of the various states, the states themselves and the federal government shall each make up its own estimates of expenditures for the ensuing year and transmit them to the federal government. Then the latter will levy the taxes and divide the proceeds according to the certified estimates. In such a plan as this the Australians believe they will get more economical government and smaller tax rates.

Not long ago a favorite question for debate was what we should do with our ex-presidents. They never were very numerous, at any one time, and few of them ever manifested any great difficulty in taking care of themselves; yet many people thought that something ought to be done for them or with them, such as making them senators or at least settling a pension upon them. The two ex-presidents who are just now surviving have answered any question as to their own disposal with apparent satisfaction to themselves and certainly in a manner that should be satisfactory to their fellow-citizens. Mr. Harrison has been earning increased distinction and larger fees than ever before in the practice of his profession, and Mr. Cleveland, who can doubtless command all the fees that he will take the trouble to earn, has accepted a lectureship at Princeton university. It may be said that in neither case is the country getting all the service from the ex-president that he is capable of giving it, if only there were some public station in which his work could be turned directly to account. Yet each in the way that has naturally opened to him is devoting his character and influence to the general advantage with self-respect and dignity, and neither of them is in any need of having anything done for him.

INDIAN SUMMER.

(Indianapolis News.)

Indian summer is all around us these days, and, like this prosperous year, is not satisfied with enough, but gives us scripture measure—pressed down and shaken together and running over—the mild and gentle warmth of the season being emphasized with a heat that makes it sometimes more "summer" than "Indian." Speaking by way of definition, Indian summer is a period of warm and pleasant weather, noticeable for the dryness of the air and the absence of wind, that visits the northern portions of the United States, but particularly the blessed Mississippi valley, after the time of the autumnal rains, sometimes without interruption for two or three weeks. It is not due at any date. October is its loved month, although it sometimes mellows September, cheers old December or gives brightness to the usually bleak November. In this valley of the great river, in the region of the great lakes, whose waters at this time lie placid as the air, it is a more decided season than anywhere else, although even here, like the wind that bloweth where it listeth, its visits are uncertain. The haze that marks the air is simply the dust and smoke that, on account of the usual absence of wind at this time, is not blown away, but float near the earth.

The name Indian summer is because it comes in the region that was chiefly occupied by the Indians, when the phenomenon was first noticed, which was at the time the eastern regions were in the possession of the white population. This ruthless statement, of course, is at war with the popular notion, that the term came from the fires of the Indians, and later from forest fires or the burning of the autumn leaves. The Indians regarded it as the gift of their most honored God, the God of the Southwest, who set the southwest winds that now do blow, and to whom the Indian souls went after death. But, though this increase of knowledge robs us of the legend, neither it nor the precise definitions of the weather bureau can rob us of the time. It comes still in all its beauty, a time between times, when nature herself her fruits yielded and her harvests gathered, seems to pause before another effort. The winds lie down, the air fills with purple, the sun, turned crimson and old through the haze, seems to hang in suspense while nature rests. It is the very wine of the year, the refreshment after labor.

SAM, PETE & MAX.

'TWAS A HOT TIME

WHICH SOME OF THE COUNCILMEN DIDN'T ENJOY.

DR. WHEELOCK'S GOOD-BYE

HE DEFENDED DR. BOSWELL'S HANDLING OF FUNDS.

S. M. FOSTER HAS HIS SAY

BICYCLISTS' PETITIONS REFERRED TO COMMITTEE.

There was a warm time in the council chamber last evening on the occasion of Dr. Wheelock's last meeting with his former colleagues as councilman. And the doctor was the cause of most of the heat. It all happened when the reports of the board of education came up for consideration. Councilman Poirson had introduced a resolution calling on Dr. Boswell, treasurer of the school board, for a statement of intsrest collected by him off the school funds. Councilmen Wheelock and Zurbuck, of the committee on education, made a report, in which they told that the doctor had paid part of the money due on the library building out of money which had been collected as interest. These councilmen did not believe that the treasurer should make a report to the council, as it would be necessary for him to place the money in the school fund instead of applying it on the library. Councilman Poirson made a minority report calling attention to Dr. Boswell's promises made fifteen months ago and making a demand that he be asked for a statement of the interest collected. The minority report was opposed by Councilman Wheelock, who proceeded to read the law and an opinion of Superintendent Gettig, in which it was shown that the treasurer could not report without making the interest a part of the school fund. While he was reading Councilman Wheelock overheard S. M. Foster, who sat behind him in the lobby, make the remark, "Exactly, exactly." The councilman, taking this to mean that Mr. Foster was impugning Dr. Boswell's method of disposing of the interest, said: "Dr. Boswell is the only custodian of funds Fort Wayne has ever had who has not personally profited, directly or indirectly, by the use of the public funds." Continuing, he declared that an attack on the library, such as he construed this agitation to be, was an attack on the public schools. "This action," he said, with emphasis, "was conceived in egotism, born in iniquity, and we ought to bury it tonight. It is all intended for the glorification of one individual."

Councilman Poirson resented forcefully the imputation that he was acting inimically toward the public library and asked Dr. Boswell whether he knew positively that every dollar of the interest was applied to the payment of the $1,900 note on the library building. Dr. Boswell answered that about $1,338 had been so applied.

"That is not the question," rejoined Mr. Poirson. "The question is, did he pay all the interest he received?"

Councilman Wheelock did not reply and Councilman Bauer shut off further debate by moving to lay the minority report on the table. The motion carried, Councilmen Poirson and Clark voting "nay." The majority report was then adopted. Councilman Wheelock tried to have the minority report expunged from the records, but the council refused to vote in favor of his motion.

Councilmen Hosey and Bauer suggested that Mr. Foster be allowed the privilege of replying to the charges that had been made by innendo against him, and as there was no objection, Mr. Foster came forward and in a deeply agitated voice said:

"The gentleman from the Eighth ward, in wonderful fear that the discussion of a public question will have a bad effect on the community, has made the most outrageous, dastardly and untrue charges against men to whom have been intrusted the dearest interests of the public. I will not repeat the charges, nor will I answer them in kind. You know him and know the gentlemen who have served as trustees, and I will stake their reputations against that of the gentleman from the Eighth ward. Now, if the treasurer of the school board wants to make a report all the world can't stop him, and if he does not want to make a report, all the world cannot make him."

The talk about being afraid of having to turn the interest into the general fund, Mr. Foster said, was groundless, since there is no general fund, so called. The money is all in one pot. Continuing, he said:

"There is not a man that knows how much interest has been received. Does the chairman of the committee know? Does the recently elected member of the board know? I doubt it. The thing for the treasurer to do is to make a report of the interest. There are five hundred ways to let the public know."

There was a running discussion between Councilman Wheelock and Mr. Foster, the councilman intimating that Mr. Foster had opposed accepting an offer of a school site from Miss Hamilton and made some statements about the building of a $24,000 school house in Lakeside. Mr. Foster said he never knew that Miss Hamilton had made an offer of a school site to the school trustees and explained that it was decided to build the Lakeside school before he became a member of the school board. The episode ended with not the best of feeling between the two men, both of whom had been defeated by Dr. Boswell when he was elected school trustee.

DID SOME BUSINESS.

Many bicycle riders and vehicle owners were present to urge the repeal of the vehicle ordinance. The petition of the Vehicle Owners' Protective association, asking for the repeal of the law, was read and referred to the committee on finance. Another request, from F. E. Purcell, to the same effect, was also read and referred.

The report of the joint committee of citizens and councilmen, relative to the interview with J. W. White concerning the purchase of the lighting plant, was read and referred to committee of the whole.

A large number of new ordinances were passed, and others referred to committees. Claims for damages against the city were presented by F. H. Kleekamp, attorney for Emma Shefferly, and Aiken and Dawson, representing Walter Burkholder, and were referred.

When the business of the evening had been concluded Dr. Wheelock informed the council that he had removed from the Eighth ward and his seat was therefore vacant.

Farewell addresses were made by Mayor Scherer and Messrs. Hench, Bauer, McMahon, Schuhler, Poirson, Buhr and Clark and it was after 11 o'clock when the council adjourned.

WITH A CAPITAL OF $250,000

NEW BERGHOFF BREWING COMPANY INCORPORATES.

Large Additional Capital Interested —The Messrs. Berghoff Remain in the Management.

The first decisive step in the reorganization of the Berghoff Brewing company, forecasted in these columns some weeks ago, was taken Tuesday, when the new company filed articles of incorporation with County Recorder Reichelderfer. The new organization secured by purchase a controlling interest in the old Berghoff company, and a large amount of new capital is added to the enterprise, though the Messrs. Berghoff will remain in the management of the company.

The new organization is capitalized at a quarter of a million dollars and the capital stock is divided as follows: A. B. Trentman, $100,000; T. B. Shoaff, $75,000; Stephen Fleming, $50,000; William Fleming, $25,000. The directors named in the articles of incorporation are J. R. Johnston, of Hartford City; Stephen Fleming, William Fleming, A. B. Trentman, Herman Berghoff, Hubert Berghoff and George D. Crane. The new owners propose to at once put $100,000 into improving and enlarging the brewery and extending its trade.

The objects of the new corporation are set forth as the manufacture of beer, malts and other liquors, and the last phrase might suggest a distillery as one of the possibilities in contemplation by the new company.

THREE MORE BRIGADIERS.

New York, Oct. 25.—A special to the Herald from Washington says:

In addition to General Funston, who is to be retained as brigadier general in the provisional army, the president has the appointment of three brigadier generals to make to fill original vacancies caused by the increase of the enlisted strength. Colonel William A. Kobbe, now in command of the Thirty-fifth volunteer infantry, is, it is understood, to be given one of the new commands. No decision has been received in regard to the other vacancies and it is probable the appointments will be kept open for two of the colonels who are campaigning with Generals Lawton and McArthur. There will be no need for their services until all of thenew troops have reached Manila. It seems settled that the appointments will be made from the officers now in the Philippines and will be made for conspicuous gallantry.

CARD FROM MR. WHEELOCK.

Oct. 25, 1899.

Editor Sentinel: Some misunderstanding of my remarks in the council chamber has gone to the public and that I, as well as the gentlemen interested, may be set right, I will state that I said "Dr. Boswell is the only custodian of the funds who has not profited, directly or indirectly, by the use of the funds."

Yours, etc.,

K. K. Wheelock.

WILL GO ON THE STAGE.

After a preparatory course in a Chicago dramatic school the Misses Ethel and Pearl Seabold, formerly of this city, will go on the stage. The young ladies are daughters of George Seabold, who formerly conducted the Star hotel in Fort Wayne, and later has been at the head of a hotel at Hartford City. This he has sold and will remove to Chicago to give his daughters the advantage of competent dramatic training. They have evidenced much talent in this direction, and now have offers from several companies.

THE very word "operation" strikes terror to a woman's soul.

Nearly always these operations become necessary through neglect.

If the menses are very painful, or too frequent and excessive, get the right advice at once and stop taking chances. It will cost you nothing for advice if you write to Mrs. Pinkham at Lynn, Mass., for it, and if you let the trouble run along it will surely cost you a great deal of pain and may mean an operation.

WOMEN AVOID OPERATIONS

MISS SARAH J. GRAHAM, Sheridanville, Pa., writes: "DEAR MRS. PINKHAM:—I had suffered for several years with female troubles and doctored until I was discouraged. I felt wretched and tired of living. I had disease of kidneys, bladder trouble, dropsy and bloating, had womb trouble and a large tumor had formed; in fact all my organs were out of fix.

"Seeing a woman's letter praising your remedies, I wrote to her and she begged of me to try it, telling me all that it had done for her. I bought six bottles of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and now cannot express my gratitude to you. The tumor began to come away in pieces and I got better all the time. I believe now that I am entirely cured.

"My doctors could not believe it at first, as they all had told me that my case was a hopeless one, and no human power could do me any good. They were astounded. If I can say anything that can help other women, I shall be glad to."

It is not safe to wait until the last moment. Head off trouble by prompt attention to it. Don't be satisfied without Mrs Pinkham's advice.

THE MARKETS.

Chicago, Oct. 25.—Dullness was the chief feature in wheat today. The market opened easy owing to a complete break in the drought throughout the southwest, but this factor was counterbalanced to a great extent by a decided falling off in demand and receipts, and traders were inclined to await further developments before taking on fresh obligations. As a consequence the market was extremely stagnant during the first two hours, but after that outside selling started liquidation, under which the market slowly declined. December opened ⅛@¼c lower at 70⅛@70⅜c, advanced to 70⅝c and declined to 69⅞@70c. Chicago received 170 cars, 8 of which were of graded contract. Minneapolis and Duluth got 548 cars, compared with 956 for the corresponding day a year ago. Light receipts and a good shipping demand steadied corn. There was heavy selling pressure by professionals, but the market made a stubborn resistance and prices were well maintained. Receipts were 355 cars. December opened ⅛c lower at 31⅞@31¼c, advanced to 31⅜c and declined to 31⅛c. Oats ruled dull and followed corn closely. Receipts were 203 cars. December opened a shade lower at 22⅜c, firmed up to 22⅝@22¾c and then declined to 22¼@22⅜c. Provisions were dull and featureless. January pork ruled a shade lower at $9.37½@9.40; January lard unchanged at $5.30@5.32½ and January ribs a shade lower at $4.87½@4.90.

THE DAY ON WALL STREET.

New York, Oct. 25.—Cable reports of higher prices in London gave an improved tone to the opening here. All the leading stocks showed fractional gains. Anaconda led with a rise of 1⅝. The New York Central and Federal Steel stocks were a shade lower and were the only notable exceptions to the gains shown.

A lively selling movement in the iron and steel group caused Sugar and the local shares to drop sharply. Meanwhile there was suport in many cases, including Leather, Norfolk and Western, Great Westerns and Southern Railway. St. Louis and Southwestern preferred was forced down 1¾. Heavy buying of St. Paul, Burlington, Rock Island and Union Pacific set in before 11 o'clock and the entire list became strong.

The weakness of the metal issues permeated the general list to some extent, but the standard stocks continue well above last night's close. The weakness of the specialties rather discouraged buying of the railways and the market became dull. Toward midday Union Pacific preferred was marked up to 78⅝ and a better tone developed all around.

Sales of stocks to noon, 311,344 shares.

Bonds held well on a moderate demand.

High prices were made after 2 o'clock when hesitation became manifest. A drop of 5 points in Malting preferred was followed by large realizing in Leather, which carried the common down 1⅜, and Leather preferred, Sugar, Brooklyn Transit and a few other stocks a point. The whole market sold off. Pullman dropped nearly 2 and Malting 2½ and Ohio Central preferred advanced 3¼. Offerings at the decline were well taken and the market started out to retrieve its losses. The coalers were conspicuous in the rally New Jersey Central rising suddenly to 126, Reading first preferred to 61, Ontario and Western to 26⅝, Delaware and Hudson to 124⅛ and Lackawanna to 193½. Manhattan, Leather and Sugar rallied a point or over. Ann Arbor preferred rose 2 points. The general market did not respond with any vigor. The closing was active and rather irregular at net gains in nearly all cases; net gains in the railroad stocks, but losses in many other specialties.

GOVERNORS IN MARYLAND.

Cumberland, Md., Oct. 25.—The governors of New York and Maryland and a half dozen local spellbinders began this morning at daylight a forty-eight-hour trip through the western part of the Oriole state in the interest of its chief executive, who is a candidate for re-election. The start was made at Piedmont, W. Va., just over the state line, where United States Senator McComas introduced Governor Roosevelt to two or three hundred people who gathered about the rear platform of the private car in which the party is traveling. Governor Roosevelt spoke briefly on state issues and commended the governor of Maryland for having kept all the promises made by him in his campaign four years ago, concluding with a reference to the late war with Spain, in which he said: "The sons of those who had worn the blue and the sons of those who had worn the gray, fought side by side and shoulder to shoulder."

Our clothing is honest. Honest material, honest tailoring, honest finish, together with honest dealing should attract the attention of any honest man.

REUBEN S. PATTERSON.

Capitol War Guards Are Still on Duty.

The extra guards who were hired during the late unpleasantness to prevent stray Spaniards from carrying off the capitol site have never been laid off. So the more stringent rules about looking through the grating at the money in the treasury building have not been relaxed. There might be another war with Spain some time, and there is nothing like taking precautions beforehand.

Germany and Nine.

The figure 9 has a peculiar connection with the career of the German emperor. His majesty is the ninth king of Prussia. He was born in the fifty-ninth year of the century, entered the army in 1869 and completed his university career in 1879. The dates of his birth and marriage, Jan. 27 and Feb. 27, both make nine if the figures 2 and 7 are added together.

EXCHANGES FOR WOMAN'S WORK.

HOW THE FIRST ONE WAS ESTABLISHED IN NEW YORK.
THE SPREAD OF THE IDEA.

BY DAVID A. CURTIS.

It is now nearly a score of years since a benevolent impulse in the active brain of a woman took active form and resulted in an institution which has done great good to thousands of other women. The institution is called the New York Exchange For Women's Work, and while it is not connected with any of the numerous other similar exchanges that have been established in various cities all over the country it is fairly entitled to be called the parent organization, since it was the forerunner of the others, and the others are practically modeled after it.

The way of its birth was this: Mrs. M. L. Choate, wife of the well known William G. Choate, happened, one day in a fancy goods store, to see a lady of refinement and culture selling some fine needlework of her own literally at starvation prices and noticed the tears that gathered in her eyes as she accepted the pittance. It occurred at once to Mrs. Choate that some plan should be devised by which women should be enabled to dispose of their work at fair prices directly to consumers without losing the middleman's margin of profit. She invited to her own house a number of other women well known for their philanthropy and with them discussed the necessity for such an enterprise and asked their aid in formulating a plan for it.

Without going into a detailed account of the various plans suggested and the arguments presented it is enough to tell what was decided upon and what has grown out of that meeting.

The first step taken was the formation of a society of which Mrs. Choate was chosen president. Among the other officers and managers are the wives of Cornelius R. Agnew, William Amory, George F. Baker, Andrew Carnegie, Frederic Coudert, Charles F. Chandler, William E. Dodge, George Hoadly, M. M. Holmes, Henry Ivison, A. D. Juillard, Russell Sage, John T. Terry, Francis B. Thurber, T. M. Wheeler, J. Henry Work and others to the number of about 40.

These ladies, acting under the advice of a board of eminent lawyers and business men, incorporated themselves under the laws of the state, taking the name of the New York Exchange For Women's Work. They then adopted a set of rules under which to do a regular consignment business for the purpose of carrying out Mrs. Choate's original idea.

As a matter of course, these rules have been modified from time to time as experience dictated, but they remain substantially the same as at first. Nothing was done hastily, but the system was carefully studied beforehand, and time has only elaborated the details of the original plan.

Feeling that the field into which they were entering was too large for them to cover entirely, they resolved to limit their efforts to the disposal of the handiwork of gentlewomen whose circumstances make it necessary for them to work.

A strong disclaimer is made by the board of any motive of exclusiveness in this. The line is drawn where it is because it is absolutely necessary to draw it somewhere. Many hundreds of would be consignors apply to have their work disposed of, and if all were received there would speedily occur a large surplus of supplies over the demand which reaches this exchange.

"And what kind of work is it that is disposed of?" I asked Miss E. S. Valil, the secretary of the exchange.

"Almost everything that women can make at home," was the comprehensive reply. "One special feature of our work is that it enables a multitude of women to maintain their homes who would without such help as we give be compelled to see those homes broken up, perhaps the family scattered. We learn to appreciate more and more all the time the importance of this point as we see ladies who come here distressed and almost heartbroken with apprehension growing happy and contented with the knowledge that they are wholly or in part self supporting.

"A curious and interesting fact illustrating this," continued Miss Valil, "is that the demeanor of the ladies who come to us changes rapidly. It often happens when they first come, and it happened especially often when we first began, that they come in a shamefaced way, closely veiled and muffled so as to avoid recognition, and they talk almost in whispers, as if mortified at the necessity of working. But after awhile they come openly, with heads erect and faces glowing with honest pride. The educational effect of our exchange in this respect has been very valuable."

The exchange is located on Fifth avenue, where it occupies the whole of a handsome mansion which is hired at an expense of $8,000 a year. A dozen or more ladies are hired at living salaries to attend to the different departments, such as the fancy work, the infants', the toy, the bric-a-brac and the domestic, or, more properly, kitchen, departments, where the thousand and one varieties of home manufactures are displayed for sale.

It is easy to see that conducting an establishment on such a scale means the expenditure of a large amount of money. This money is raised from several different sources, and the urgent and constant need for a little more money keeps the managers active all the year around in the struggle to make both ends meet.

First the forty odd directors tax themselves $50 or $100 apiece each year. Next they impose an entrance fee, so to speak, on the consignors or such persons as desire to procure the privileges of the exchange for some gentlewoman who is in need. This fee is a mere trifle. Any person contributing $5 yearly may name three consignors whose work will be taken on sale.

Then 10 per cent commission is charged on all sales that are made. As these average between $40,000 and $50,000 a year, this item of receipts is the largest. All these together, however, do not aggregate enough to pay expenses, and the exchange is therefore dependent upon the liberality of its friends to make up deficits.

A visit to the exchange commonly results in the astonishment of the visitor. As I said, the consignors are all ladies of culture who have been reduced in circumstances. This class in the community is larger than most people suppose or can easily realize, excepting by remembering that over 90 per cent of American business men fail.

These ladies commonly excel in some one thing, and the advice of the managers to them is always to do that particular thing, whether it be painting on ivory, embroidering in velvet or cooking crullers. So it comes about that whatever is on sale is probably the very best of its kind, being produced by some lady who learned to make it either as an accomplishment or for amusement.

The bewildering variety of objects displayed can be imagined when it is remembered that there are several hundreds of the consignors. The report for one year, for instance, showed that in a total of $51,000 sales over $10,000 was received for cake and nearly $2,500 for preserves. Decorated china, fancy screens, children's wrappers, chicken jelly and lace lamp shades are some of the numerous items in the catalogue.

In addition to the primary work that was undertaken of enabling women to reach their customers, the managers have undertaken several branches of what may be called auxiliary effort. For example, they have started dressmaking classes for society girls and have succeeded in securing nearly 50 pupils among the wealthy and educated young women of the metropolis. Of course these pupils pay for their tuition and so help to support the exchange. At the same time they are providing for their own support in case they should ever have to earn their living.

There are other classes in stenography, in millinery, in Delsarte, in venetian embroidery and in cooking, and there is also a "shopping bureau," which is well patronized and affords a living to more than one employee. Besides this, a school for general culture has been opened in the country, of which a separate chapter could easily be written.

The effects of this beneficent movement—for the ladies term it beneficence rather than charity, as it is not giving so much as guiding that they do—are widespread and great. Beginning in a modest way in a comparatively small house in Twentieth street, the exchange sold the first year only about $2,000 worth of goods. Now, as said, the sales are about $50,000 yearly, and the association has paid more than half a million dollars to its beneficiaries. More than that, there have been similar exchanges to the number of 60 established in very many of the principal cities of the country.

There is no reason why one should not be established in every large community under rules fashioned according to the necessities of the place, and certainly there seems to have been no plan devised by which more intelligent help can be given to people who deserve help and need it more sorely than almost any other class. Partial reports from the 60 societies tell that they have paid to gentlewomen over $1,500,000.

MATRON AND MAID.

Miss Ann Klunke, who inherits all of the property of the late Rosa Bonheur, is a California woman and is a painter of note.

Mrs. Sarah D. Newsome, who died at Iowa City, Ia., the other day at the age of 93, was Charlotte Bronte's governess in Bradford, England.

Mrs. Joseph M. Choate, wife of the American ambassador to England, is a believer in the higher education of women and since her arrival abroad has made a careful study of the methods pursued at Girton and Newnham.

Mrs. Primm, the widow of Judge Primm of St. Louis, is still alive at the age of 84. She is the grandchild of Amable Chouteau, the first white child born in St. Louis, and remembers when English was an extra study in the schools of that city.

Adrienne Lecouvreur, the actress, was buried secretly on the banks of the Seine, and all trace of her grave was lost. It has just been found in the cellar of a house in the Rue de Grenelle, covered by a marble slab bearing an inscription that leaves no doubt as to its authenticity.

Mrs. Frederick Hanger of Little Rock, the president of the Arkansas Federation of Women's Clubs, is one of the most active clubwomen in the south. She is president of the Little Rock Aesthetic and Quid Nunc clubs and has been chapter regent of the Daughters of the Revolution.

Miss Cora Agnes Benneson of Cambridge, Mass., who read a paper recently before the American Association For the Advancement of Science on "Federal Guarantees For Maintaining Republican Government In the States," has been made a fellow of the association. Miss Benneson is a graduate of the University of Michigan.

Mrs. Mattie W. Davis, a society woman of Richmond, who has lost all power of speech through illness, has now suddenly developed an ability to sing, an accomplishment she did not possess before her illness. She sings songs with words to them in a clear and distinct voice which can be heard all over the house. She is still unable to talk.

Miss Marie M. Thixton of the Louisville Press club has just accepted the coeditorship of the Louisville Free Press and, having recovered from her recent severe illness, will in a short time enter upon her new duties. A series of historical sketches of local interest, prepared by Miss Thixton for the Louisville Evening Times, attracted widespread attention.

Miss Alice de Rothschild, who was recently naturalized in England, was sincerely devoted to her brother, the late Baron Nathaniel, and inherited a large life interest in his immense fortune. The lady is very clever and a social success. She often acted as hostess at the large house parties at Waddesdon when ladies were invited, though she never took up her residence on the estate.

PEARY AND THE POLE.

If, after all his preparations, Peary should fail, it may be assumed that the pole is to be reached only with rare good fortune and by dint of sacrifices which no government or combination of individuals would be disposed to make.—Boston Herald.

It is a fair conclusion that the mystery of the pole, as we like to term it, is to be solved by an American, working with private funds, it is true, and without even his regular salary as a lieutenant, but under leave of absence given by Secretary Long.—Detroit Journal.

Arctic advance is a matter of grim determination working against unusual odds. Peary knows this, and that is why it is highly probable that when he does return it will be with a record the country may be proud of. If any one can win against the elements, he can.—Philadelphia Press.

On the whole, the year's work of the expedition has been of a valuable character, thanks to the good judgment and skill exhibited by the intrepid explorer, and much information of an important character may be expected from Peary as the result of his work during the next year.—Brooklyn Times.

ORCHARD AND GARDEN.

With all evergreens it is important to protect the roots from exposure.

With most varieties of roses the best plan of cultivation is to stir the surface thoroughly.

When the potatoes are dug, pick out smooth, medium sized tubers from the best hills for seed.

The cherry tree is a close grower. Whether upright or with a close, round head it requires but little room.

Keep the walks clean. Nothing detracts so much from the looks of a place as weedy and badly defined walks.

In looking over an orchard keep a lookout for badly shaped heads and abrading limbs, and if any are found cut them out. There is no advantage in waiting.

Whenever bows of tree vines become troublesome, top them off, no matter at what time in the season. Cut smoothly and do not mangle, tear or skin the parts that are left.

RAILWAY TIES.

To the academic city of Edinburgh is accorded the distinction of having the largest railway station in Great Britain.

A new sign has been added to the German railway time table—a picture of a bicycle indicating which express trains carry wheels.

Passenger trains from Boston to Plymouth are hauled as far as Braintree and then divided into two parts and drawn to Plymouth by a third rail motor.

The new street cars to be used on the interurban line between St. Paul and Stillwater will have compressed air brakes and whistles. The air whistle will be used in the country, where the cars will be run at a high rate of speed.

ANIMAL ODDITIES.

African elephants can climb mountains with remarkable ease.

The English red legged partridge makes an annual excursion out to sea each April.

A caterpillar is so greedy that in one month it usually devours 6,000 times its own weight in food.

An Auburn (Me.) firm has a horse whose neck is so short that he cannot feed off the ground unless he gets down on his knees, and as he frequently assumes that position the animal has become known as the praying truck horse.

Hives should not be set flat on the ground. They should be raised about two inches—the thickness of a brick, which should be under each corner. The air should always circulate between the ground and the hive.—St. Louis Republic.

KITCHEN APRONS.

How to Make Them of Calico, Oilcloth or Gunny Sacking.

A serviceable and quickly made kitchen apron is the one of gingham or calico, made like a child's apron, low neck and no sleeves, simply joined over the shoulder and buttoned in the back. It consists of a shaped front, goring at the sides, arm's eyes shaped out and a low cut back and front, about the shoulders, and arm's eyes and neck bound or hemmed down. A wide hem finishes the bottom, and patch pockets make the apron better finished because more convenient. The back widths are slanted or gored and fitted to each side of the front width.

The same apron made of table oilcloth is a most convenient and serviceable apron to have. It saves a vast amount of washing, for it can be wiped off and is again ready for service. It saves the dress fronts from soil and wear and for dishwashing and wash day is invaluable. Such an apron is quickly made and pays well. If the oilcloth is of neat design and color, the apron looks very neat and tasty and wears well. Once having used one, no housewife who has a great amount of dishwashing and general kitchen work to attend to will be without one of these oilcloth aprons.

Another apron fashioned and much used by another thrifty housewife, who also sews a great deal for others, she calls her "hard times apron." It is made of "gunny sacking," or such sacks as binding twine is put upon the market in. These sacks are strong and, for the kind, are firm and bear a great deal of wear. In whatever form these aprons are cut, they are finished at all raw edges by binding with new calico, cut in bias strips an inch and a half or two inches wide. They are usually made in the style that cuts the bib and front breadth in one piece, pointed ends passing about the hips and buttoning at the back and the ends of the bib joined at back of neck or shoulders, permitting the bib to be slipped over the head. —Christian Work.

How to Make Soft Soap.

Potash, 7½ pounds; tallow, 10 pounds; rosin, powdered, 3 pounds; water, 37½ gallons. Dissolve the potash in part of the water, add one-third of the grease and rosin and heat. Mix in the remainder of the grease, put in a barrel and add the remainder of the water a little at a time for several days. Stir often. It will be ready for use in about two weeks.

How to Make Ginger Beer.

One gallon of boiling water, one ounce of best bruised ginger, the same quantity of cream of tartar and one pound of loaf sugar. Put all together and stir until the sugar is dissolved. Leave until it is warm as new milk and then add a dessertspoonful of yeast on a small piece of bread. Cover the pan with a cloth and leave for a whole day. Then strain and bottle. Be careful not to fill the bottles too full, or they will burst. Cork tightly and tie down. This will be fit to drink after two days, but will keep longer.

How to Make Tomato Catchup.

One gallon of tomatoes, one pound sugar, one quart vinegar, one teaspoonful of cayenne pepper one teaspoonful of black pepper, four teaspoonfuls of ground cloves, four teaspoonfuls of salt and four teaspoonfuls of ground mustard. Boil down one-quarter. Add four teaspoonfuls of ground cinnamon. Bottle and seal.

How to Preserve the Teeth.

To prevent the teeth from decaying unduly brush well every morning, using a good tooth powder and having a little carbonate soda in the water. After each meal rinse the mouth with tepid water in which a little carbonate of soda is dissolved, and before retiring at night brush the teeth again. If strong medicines have to be taken, have them made up in the form of pills if possible, as tinctures of iron, acids and so on have a bad effect on the enamel of the teeth.

How to Make Peach Custard Pie.

Line a plate with crust, cut the peaches in halves, lay over bottom and sweeten. Yolks of two eggs and white of one, a pinch of salt, one tablespoon sugar. Beat, add milk enough to fill the pie and bake. Make a frosting of the white and sugar to beat stiff. Brown in the oven.

How to Make Olive Sauce.

Mix an ounce of flour in four teaspoonfuls of olive oil, add three shallots chopped fine, half a lemon peel grated to powder, salt, pepper, a bay leaf, two tablespoonfuls of vinegar and a cup of soup stock. Cook 20 minutes. Strain and stir in the meat of six olives cut small. Mutton hash should be made simply and dry and the sauce poured around it or served apart.

How to Bake Eggs and Kidneys.

Eggs baked with ham or kidney form an excellent luncheon dish. Heat a baking dish and put in two tablespoonfuls of butter. When it is melted, break into it several eggs, sprinkle with salt and pepper and a few bread crumbs, place the dish in a hot oven for three minutes, then pour over the eggs a cupful of rich brown sauce and one-half cupful of cooked ham or cooked kidney chopped fine.

How to Bake Potato Pears.

Boil and mash the potatoes, put them through a sieve and return them to the saucepan. Add a little milk, a small piece of butter, the yolks of two eggs, pepper, salt and nutmeg. Stir well and leave on a plate to cool, shape into pears, dip them in beaten egg and bread crumbs and fry in deep, hot fat. Make a stem for each with a piece of parsley stalk.

How to Prevent Cake Burning.

To prevent cakes from burning put two or three layers of thick paper under the tin.

LAUGHING GAS.

The Stolen Kiss.

The hammock hung between the trees,
The maiden fair
Lay in it with her eyelids closed—
He saw her there.

With wildly beating heart he stole
Up to her side
And softly to her ripe, red lips
His own he applied.

He kissed her—kissed the gentle maid,
So fair, so sweet,
And with a tumult in his breast
Beat a retreat.

At length she slowly straightened up,
With open eyes,
"He took but one," she said and sighed
A lot of sighs.

Rivalry.

No person ever gets so grand
But that he's often made
To fear some one will take a hand
And put him in the shade.
A trust may grow and get to be
The biggest of the set,
And still it quakes lest it shall see
Another, bigger yet.

The man in glory reveling
Must sometimes pause and doubt,
Because another hour may bring
Another hero out.
And in each party and each clan
Of sleep there's woeful loss;
You'll always find another man
Who wants to boss the boss.

TYPHOON WAS DISASTROUS

MORE DAMAGE ON LAND THAN ON SEA.

Raged With Fierceness and Hundreds of Houses Were Wrecked and Lives Lost.

Victoria, B. C., Oct. 25.—Intelligence is brought by the Rinsa Maru, which has arrived here, that the typhoon through which the Empress and Senator passed proved more disastrous on land than on sea. In Tokio and Yokohama it raged with great fierceness. Hundreds of houses were wrecked in all districts, though the storm seems to have been attended with less loss of life than usual.

A train bound for Fushima from Myeno encountered a gale of such terrific fury when crossing the Hokogown that it was blown into the river. It consisted of ten cars, including two locomotives, four carriages and three brake vans. The locomotives, having cut off their coupling pins, escaped scathless, but all the other cars, carrying about 100 passengers, were precipitated from the bridge. One person was killed instantly, thirty were severely injured and thirty others slightly. One woman is reported missing. Fortunately the water below the bridge was not deep. Had it been, all the passengers would have been drowned.

News of another disastrous catastrophe comes from Tagonnoura, between Numadeza and Suzukawn. About 1 o'clock on October 7 a tidal wave swept over Tagonaoura. Over 200 houses were destroyed and more than 100 people perished. The neighborhood of Yoshiwa Meiwa was converted into an extensive lake. A number of boats are engaged in the search for the dead bodies. Great misery and suffering prevails among the afflicted people.

A telegram from Miyazaki prefecture also reports the occurrence of a tidal wave at Mimitzumachi on October 6 and the destruction of many houses.

It is alleged in the petition that Metheny made a fraudulent transfer to avoid liability for debts. The amount of the claims is $600.

COUNCIL WANTS INTEREST

LAFAYETTE HAVING TROUBLE ABOUT THE SCHOOL FUND.

By Unanimous Vote Council Demands Resignation of School Board Treasurer.

Lafayette, Ind., Oct. 25.—The city council Monday night, by a unanimous vote, demanded that W. S. Peckham resign as a member of the school board. This action is based on a refusal by Mr. Peckham, as alleged, to turn over the interest last year on school funds, of which he was treasurer. Mr. Peckham recently attracted considerable attention by furnishing $4,000 cash bonds for the Chenowiths, at Frankfort, who were prosecuted for depending on Christian Science instead of medical aid at the time their child died. They were afterwards acquitted.

We do not say that our worthy friend attends the ball games, but she must have been kept very busy traveling from one place to another on last Sunday to have been an eye-witness to the many occurrences which she narrates to have taken place on that day. We suggest that our friend read the 12th, 13th and 14th verses of the fifth chapter of Deuteronomy and notice what it says in regard to keeping the Sabbath day.

SAVED FROM THE KNIFE AND GRAVE.

Morris Chapel, Tenn., March 1, 1899.

I have used McElree's Wine of Cardui long enough to know what it will do. About seven years ago I was taken down with La Grippe. Neuralgia later set in and our family doctor said I had stone in the bladder, and that the only cure was the knife. I suffered for seven months. I think, myself, the main trouble was neuralgia of the womb. The pains would start in my face and teeth and run down my back, finally settling in my womb. Then I would get cold and stiff from the knees down and would have to go to bed. I heard of Wine of Cardui about that time, and commenced to take it. After using it for a few days I felt very much better, and am now as well as I ever was in my life. I am certain I would have been in my grave before now if I had not taken Wine of Cardui and Black-Draught.

Mrs. MARY BOOKER.

Mrs. Mary Booker's experience is a common one. McElree's Wine of Cardui has many times saved a suffering woman from a surgeon's knife and from an untimely grave.

The physician of to-day treats so many different ailments that he cannot give adequate investigation and correct treatment to all. Simple irregularities of the female organs, if neglected, or improperly treated, frequently result in permanent ailments of the most complicated kind. When a physician fails to correctly diagnose such a case, he too often resorts to unnecessary operations with distressing results. The deaths on the operating table reported in the newspapers, and the women of every one's acquaintance made invalids by operations for "womb troubles", show that Wine of Cardui has not come into popular use too soon. Mrs. Booker's trial of Wine of Cardui gave her happiness, health and freedom from suffering, in place of the offensive operation with which she was threatened. What a change!

SHOP AND RAIL.

SOME CHANGES WROUGHT BY THE WABASH.

PERU BOOMS, ANDREWS DIES

THE RESULT OF CHANGE IN DIVISION TERMINAL.

CAR SHORTAGE GROWS WORSE

BUSINESS GREATLY HANDICAPPED IN CONSEQUENCE.

Writing from Peru, a correspondent of the Indianapolis News says that the Wabash company disburses in wages at that city an average of $20,000 per month. Concerning the downfall of Andrews, the same correspondent says: "When the Wabash made arrangements to run its trains over the Grand Trunk railway from Detroit, Mich., to Buffalo, N. Y., it made a move which killed Andrews and boomed Peru. The company having a direct line, the Eel River road, between Peru and Detroit, was enabled to run its trains from Kansas City, Mo., to Buffalo, N. Y., by a direct route. For western shippers, especially grain and stock men, this route has proved a great convenience. This arrangement left the Andrews division headquarters in an out-of-the-way place, and as a result the company proceeded to adjust matters to suit the required conditions. Little by little the citizens of Andrews saw the headquarters moved to Peru and now only the empty buildings and the yards remain to tell the story of how the place once flourished. In the town vacant houses are more numerous than occupied ones, and in some instances landlords permit families to live in their houses free of charge in order that they may be kept in a desirable condition. The Wabash employs less than a half-dozen men in Andrews now. The citizens realize the wonderful change that has taken place and are trying to locate factories. They have succeeded in landing a novelty works, which will employ a hundred workmen. The conditions at Andrews are just the opposite to those here in Peru. Here every house is occupied and many Wabash railroaders who have their families elsewhere would move to Peru if they could find suitable homes. During the summer 125 houses were erected here and these, too, are occupied. Many others are being built, but the supply will not equal the demand."

Butler's experience was similar to that of Andrews, though the damage wrought by the change was not so extensive. There is evidently some deal on between the Wabash and the Lake Shore at Butler. Concerning it the Record of that place says: "There is some peculiar and unusual move being made by the railroad people here that may be taken as indicative of something. The Wabash is moving its storehouse, or rather its goods, to Peru, where they will establish it. The Lake Shore has cleaned up and repaired the two tracks leading to the two south stalls of the round house. These tracks not being used, had been allowed to grow up with weeds and were not kept in repair. It is said that the Eel River railroad company owns the two south stalls to which the tracks have been repaired, yet the Lake Shore did the repairing, but why they should only repair two tracks is the question."

THE CAR SHORTAGE.

The car shortage is still troubling railway officials and will continue to do so all winter. As one official puts it, "We think one day that there is an improvement in the situation and that we can see our way out. The next day it is different and we find ourselves as badly off as ever." Eastern lines are no further ahead in filling orders than a week ago. Their transfer elevators are busy working night and day and still they cannot keep up with the heavy offerings of grain from the western lines. Last week witnessed sales of nearly 3,000,000 bushels of corn and about 1,000,000 bushels of other grains, which will have to go forward before the advance in rates becomes effective, November 1. Most of this grain will go to Philadelphia, Baltimore and Newport News. In the west, the south and southwest the car situation has grown worse. The Northwestern and St. Paul officials say that they cannot supply half the demands made upon them for cars. The Burlington has orders booked for 2,000 more cars than it is able to fill, taking the system over. According to a dispatch from Montreal, never before in the history of railroading in Canada have the railway companies been so hampered for want of rolling stock. Though the Canadian Pacific and Grand Trunk companies made very large additions to both their passenger and freight rolling stock in anticipation of a very large increase in the general freight carrying business this autumn, they now find that, with every car in use, and with all those that can be obtained from the car companies in the United States, they are very short on rolling stock. Apart from the good crops in the west of both countries, the general freight carrying business has increased enormously over that of last season.

THEY MAY STRIKE.

The tension between the Great Northern and its employes has almost reached the snapping point. The grievance committees which have been in session in the Twin Cities for ten days, met again Monday and it is understood that they formulated an ultimatum. The bonding system and the use of spotters are the two main points of grievance.

THEY ARE WELCOME.

Huntington News-Democrat: "Jas. Swain, of Fort Wayne, who resigned his position in the Erie shops to accept a position as brakeman on the Pittsburg, came down from Fort Wayne to move his household goods to that city Wednesday.—Jacob Z. Long will move his household goods and family to Fort Wayne tomorrow. For several years he has been in the berry business in Clear Creek township. He will take a position in the Fort Wayne shops."

THE PENNSYLVANIA'S PLANS.

A high official in Pennsylvania railroad circles states that the company is at work mapping out improvements to be made next year, and so far they consist principally in the construction of various freight yards, enlarging terminals and laying more tracks. The report will be submitted to President Cassatt, and it depends altogether on the continuation of the activity in business, for if there should be a sudden falling off work will be cut down. One of the principal operations which has been planned is the construction of a new station at Pittsburg and the doing away with grade crossings on the Fort Wayne road in that city. This work will cost several millions and when the building is completed it will be one of the finest along the line of the road.

BROKE HIS LEG.

I. Bailey, of the Pittsburg tank shop, who went down to Dixon, Ohio, last Saturday to spend Sunday with his relatives, did not return as expected, and a telegram from him this morning stated that he is detained there by an accident that befel his little son. The lad fell and fractured the bones of one of his legs and is in such condition that he cannot be brought home at present. Mr. Bailey will remain there with him a few days.

FIREMAN HURT.

While his engine was taking coal at Wanatah last night, a big piece of the fuel rolled off the dump cart and alighted upon the head of Fireman D. D. Stewart, of the Pittsburg road. The unfortunate man received a bad scalp wound and is suffering from concussion. He was brought to his home in this city, where Dr. G. C. Stemen attended him.

OFFICERS INSPECTING ROAD.

A special train bearing General Superintendent A. W. Johnston, Motive Power Superintendent John McKinzie, Division Superintendent C. D. Gorham and other officials of the line, arrived in the city this forenoon and remained here several hours, while the officials inspected the property and discussed matters of interest to the company, including the proposed big intercepting sewer.

DR. WILSON'S SUCCESSOR.

The Pennsylvania company announces the appointment as surgeon at Plymouth of Dr. Aspinwall, one of the best known physicans at that place. Dr. J. H. Wilson, who died a few weeks ago, was the company's surgeon at that point for a number of years.

RE-ELECTED THE OFFICERS.

Cincinnati, Ohio, Oct. 25.—The stockholders of the Cleveland, Cincinnati, Chicago and St. Louis railroad (Big Four) today elected the following directors: Geo. T. Bliss, H. M. C. Twombley, J. B. Layng and F. W. Vanderbilt.

There were 68,455 preferred and 158,164 common stock represented. No one was elected to succeed the late Cornelius Vanderbilt. The board will meet in New York November 14 to organize.

TRAINMEN WILL WIN.

The Big Four trainmen's committee held a conference with General Superintendent Van Winkle at Indianapolis yesterday, lasting all day, over the question of restoring the scale of wages paid to brakemen and switchmen at the time the reduction was made in 1893. Nothing definite was done, as it is intended to finally settle the matter with General Manager Schaff when he arrives. There is every reason to believe, however, that the request of the men will be granted.

IRON AND STEEL GO UP.

Pittsburg, Pa., Oct. 25.—The American Manufacturer, in its issue tomorrow will say:

"It is understood that the mills making steel rails combined and notified the railroad interests of the country that prices would be advanced and that the railroads could cover all their wants at $33 per ton.

"Nearly every railway in the country came in with orders and an aggregate of 1,500,000 tons of rails were ordered at the above price for delivery in 1900. The price was then raised by rail makers as follows

"For standard sections, in lots from 100 to 200 tons, $37; car load lots, $38, and less than car load lots, $40.

"Light rails, from 25 to 50 pounds per yard, $37 per ton. All the prices quoted are f. o. b. Pittsburg mills.

"The importance of this can scarcely be realized. The total sales aggregate about $50,000,000. This means that about one-sixth of the total steel output for 1900 will be consumed in the manufacture of rails.

"This does not include the orders placed by the Russian government some time ago, together with other orders which will make the aggregate tonnage in rails next year much more than has already been ordered.

"This fixes it beyond all peradventure that prices of iron and steel for 1900 will be considerably higher than prevailing figures."

Executive officers of western lines will meet in Chicago tomorrow for the purpose of considering the passenger rate situation. It is said a foremost object of the meeting is to try to induce all outside lines to take up membership in the Western Passenger association.

Engineer John Cummins, with a Wabash passenger train on the Eel River division, made a trip a few days ago from Montpelier, Ohio, to Peru, a distance of 100 miles, in one hour and forty-eight minutes, beating all previous records. The train made stops wherever scheduled.

The Philadelphia and Reading railroad company has placed a contract with the American Foundry company, of Detroit, for the construction of 1,000 coal cars. This makes a total of 2,500 coal cars contracted for by the company within a week and it is an indication of the great activity in the coal trade.

Kendallville Sun: "Julius Beyer went to Fort Wayne today to commence his labors with the Nickel Plate railroad. Mr. Beyer has been a faithful and efficient railroad employe here for many years and has hosts of friends here who will join the Sun in wishing him success in his new field of labor."

At a meeting of the board of directors of the New York Central and Hudson River railroad Monday authority was given for an increase of $15,000,000 in the capital stock of the road, which will make a total capitalization of $115,000,000. The additional capitalization is to be used in the acquirement of equipment.

REV. SAMSON ACCEPTS A CALL

FORT WAYNE PASTOR GOES TO MULBERRY, IND.

Unanimous Call to a Very Desirable Pastorate—Will Leave Fort Wayne Next Week.

Rev. Maurice Samson, formerly pastor of Heidelberg Reformed church in this city, will leave Fort Wayne next week to accept the pastorate of the Reformed church at Mulberry, Ind., a town of 800 inhabitants, fifteen miles southwest of Lafayette. The call was unanimous, and the fact that Rev. Samson was selected from among a large number of applicants is highly complimentary to his ability as a pastor.

Rev. Samson preached a trial sermon at Mulberry three weeks ago, and the call followed his appearance there. There were twenty-two applicants, five of whom were heard in trial sermons, but the unanimous vote of both the consistory and the congregation fell to the Fort Wayne minister.

The Reformed church at Mulberry is said to be one of the prettiest of the Reformed churches in the west. The congregation is a very old one, but a thoroughly modern church building was erected about five years ago. There are three appointments, closely connected, at which he will preach, and the total membership is nearly five hundred. The pastorate is a very lucrative one, and in all respects desirable. Rev. Samson will remove to the new work at once, and has already begun preparations for leaving Fort Wayne next week.

Mrs. Clara D. Stacy, of Chicago, will give a course of free illustrated lectures under the auspices of the Viavi company on the "Higher Physical Life of Women" at the gymnasium of the Y. W. C. A., October 26th, 27th, 31st and November 2nd at 7:30 p. m. Subjects: "The Way of Life in the House Beautiful"; "Pictures from Life"; "Motherhood and Heredity"; "Our Responsibilities." 25-2t

OOM PAUL'S GOOD FRAU

Although a Multimillionaire's Wife, She Cooks and Washes and Darns—Knows More About Knitting Than Politics.

BY MARY E. LEONARD.

The wife of "Oom Paul" Kruger is a plain, motherly looking old woman, who is as vigorous at 65 as most women are at 40. As wife of the president of the Transvaal republic she lives as simply as any burgher's wife in the country. Although her husband is said to have a fortune of from $25,000,000 to $35,000,000, she lives as economically as she would if they had not a penny in the bank.

What would we think of the wife of an American multimillionaire who did her own housework, cooked her own meals, made her own dresses and darned her husband's socks? Yet Mrs. Kruger does all these things. She has none of the airs of the fine lady. The wives of many a $1,500 a year clerk in Pretoria dress better than does the wife of the Boer president.

She is not parsimonious or miserly, however. She has a good, kind face. She has been a good wife and a good mother for half a century, and she knows not how to be anything different. In short, she is a typical good Dutch frau.

For many years the Krugers lived in a modest little cottage on one of Pretoria's back streets. The walls were generally covered with morning glory vines, and there was a big tree in the front yard. Under this tree Mrs. Kruger used to sit with her knitting, while her lord and master sat near smoking.

A few years ago Kruger had built a new house on Church street opposite the Dutch Reformed church, where he sometimes preaches. The new house is far from being a mansion. In fact, it is much less pretentious than the homes of many of the well to do burghers. It is such a house as an American millionaire might build for his coachman or head gardener.

An iron railing, with stone pillars, is in front of the house, which is protected from the sun by a veranda. Between the railings and the veranda, right and left of the entrance, couch two stone lions, the gift of the late Mr. B. J. Barnato.

The president's house is simply furnished, for he does not care for pomp. Much furniture he does not need since his favorite spot is the "stoop." Here he may be found early in the day till 8 o'clock and again from half past 5 till sunset.

The visitor would probably find Mrs. Kruger sitting there with her knitting. If she was not in sight, where do you suppose she would be? At a meeting of the Browning club, at a foreign missionary meeting? Not at all. She would be in the kitchen preparing the "kaffe clatch" or baking "der brode" or scrubbing the floors.

It is said that the Krugers' household expenses are more than met by the $2,000 allowed the president as "coffee money." The $55,000 salary is added to his ever increasing bank account.

Where all the Kruger fortune will go goodness knows! There are some American Krugers and residents of Chicago and relatives of the Boer president who expect to get some of it.

A correspondent who recently interviewed Mr. Kruger writes: "As he closed our interview Mr. Kruger went across the hall into a low ceilinged, whitewashed room and leaned for a moment over a placid faced, motherly little woman who was seated on a rocking chair darning stockings. This was Mrs. Kruger, who, though one never hears of her, interested me mightily, because she seemed so utterly oblivious to the turmoils that are besetting her husband's nation."

Mrs. Kruger is a second wife. She was a Miss Du Plessis, a name of prominence in South Africa. Kruger's first wife was an aunt of Miss Du Plessis and bore him one son, who died. Sixteen children were the fruit of this second marriage, and of those seven are living. The girls are comfortably married to burghers in and about Pretoria, and the boys take an active interest in the army.

THE BEEF TRUST.

New York butchers are getting together the sinews of war, but the beef trust still retains the tenderloin.—New York World.

All combines are not inimical to the public interest—for instance, the combine against the beef combine. The people will wish more power to it.—Erie Herald.

The beef trust is getting back at us now for the manner in which we criticised the embalming process they used when war's alarms filled the land.—Denver Post.

TAKING THE REINS.

Roberta A, 2:29¼, a new 2:30 trotter, is a sister to Hemonia, 2:07¾.

In the free for all at Hookstown, Pa., the other day Alice Nims lowered the track record to 2:19¼.

Tonita F, 2:11¾, is another Iowa product that is doing well this year. She has won nine straight races.

W. V. Baker's bay mare Miss Haley, 2:24½, holds the Columbus (O.) wagon record, having trotted a mile at that style of going in 2:21.

Sunland Belle was recently hooked to sulky at Cleveland, and when she got used to the light rig stepped a mile in 2:08, last half in 1:03.

Ethel B, by Redfield, who won the 2:20 trot at the Rockport (O.) meeting, was bought two years ago for $20. She cost Henry Sanders $850 a few weeks ago.

The gray gelding Who Is It, by Nutwood Wilkes, made his first start of the season in the 2:12 trot at Rendville and took a record of 2:10½ in the first heat.

Red Star stepped the second heat of the free for all at Bainbridge, Ind., Aug 17 in 2:12¾, reducing his record a quarter of a second and breaking the track record.

Rustic, the gelding that had such an easy thing in the 2:35 trot and pace at Goshen, N. Y., was recently sold for $75 and up to a short time ago pulled a butcher's delivery wagon.

Arrigle is yet unidentified and after winning the first heat of the 2:30 trot at Auburn, N. Y., in handy fashion was ruled out, owing to his owner not being able to identify the horse.

Idolita and Mamie W, winners of first and second moneys respectively in the New England Futurity and both Palo Alto bred ones, went through the Fasig sale in Cleveland a year ago.

Paola, 2:18, registered as Lone Pine, full brother to Palo Alto, 2:08¾; Altivo, 2:18¾, etc., is now in the Great Table, his daughter Precita having taken a record of 2:26. This gives Dame Winnie another producer of speed.—Horseman.

WHAT MACHINERY DOES.

Fertilizing an acre with manure and shovel takes 50 hours, while [illegible] a modern drill the same work is done in an hour.

A machine for making umbrella covers does in 20 minutes the work that formerly required 4 hours and 20 minutes by hand.

Sewing the ramps on 100 pairs of women's fine shoes takes 10 hours by machine as compared with 100 hours by hand.

One acre of oats is harvested with a self binder in two hours as against 16 hours and 40 minutes using a sickle and cradle.

One thousand paper bags, which formerly took 6 hours and 20 minutes to make by hand, are now turned out finished by a machine in 20 minutes.

With a machine that reaps, thrashes and sacks the wheat in one operation, an acre is thus treated in 52 minutes, that required 48 hours and 40 minutes by the old method.

The modern gangplow turns up an acre of land for wheat in one hour as compared with five to eight hours when work is done with oxen drawing an ordinary steel plow.

It takes 12 minutes to thoroughly harrow an acre of ground with the modern disk harrow as compared with 2½ hours using a brush cut from a treetop and drawn by oxen, as was the custom of the early settlers.

ORCHARD AND GARDEN.

Plenty of side shoots shade the trunk of the tree.

With fruit trees true beauty should be associated with vitality.

In transplating save all the roots possible and spread them out naturally and well.

Keep a lookout for the borer. A twisted wire will usually reach him if he is in the stem of the tree.

To make the most out of the garden keep every spot occupied during the growing season with a crop.

In growing fruits some distance from market it is always best to grow such varieties as will keep well and bear transportation.

One of the advantages in fall planting is that in nearly all cases there is then more time to do the work and it may be done more carefully. This is always an important item in transplanting.

Many good growers prefer to bud so late in the season that the inserted buds will lie dormant during the winter. If budded early, they grow and the new wood does not have time to ripen well for winter.—Exchange.

ANIMAL ODDITIES.

In the African elephant both sexes have ivory tusks, while in the Asiatic they are generally restricted to the male.

The wild horses of Arabia will not admit a tame horse among them, while the wild horses of South America endeavor to decoy domesticated horses from their masters and seem eager to welcome them.

The hog of Mexico does not "improve each shining hour." As there is very little cold weather there, no necessity exists for laying in winter stores of honey, and the bee is therefore as lazy as a cockroach.

The speed of an otter under water is amazing. Fish have no chance against them. In some places in India otters are kept by the natives to fish for them. They are tied up to stakes like dogs when not working, wear plated straw collars and seem happy.

THE HOME DOCTOR.

Thin, nervous women require ten hours' sleep every night.

For earache apply a good sized linseed meal poultice, hot, with eight or ten drops of laudanum dropped in the middle. This will usually cure the most severe earache.

In convulsions of children apply cold to the head and heat to the body. A warm mustard bath is excellent. Camphor may be held to the nostrils, and sometimes chloroform is used with good results.

A stubborn attack of hiccoughs will almost invariably yield if a drop of oil of cassia (cinnamon) on a piece of sugar is given to the sufferer every 10 or 15 minutes. It has been proved effective when all other remedies have failed.

THE SHAMROCK.

These narrow escapes of the Shamrock would seem to show that she's got a good deal of luck in her locker.—Boston Herald.

What's in a name? Shamrock was built in England by a Scotchman and hasn't an Irishman in her entire crew.—St. Louis Republic.

The loser of the yacht race is assured of much consolation in the opportunity to show how amiable and sportsmanlike he can be under adverse conditions.—Washington Star.

It is a natural impulse of patriotism to deny that the cup is in danger, but it is hardly to be denied that there have been times when its anchorage seemed a trifle more secure.—New York Tribune.

The Demand for Champagne.

The total demand of the world for champagne is about 22,000,000 bottles annually, a demand which can be readily met for some years to come by the supplies held in stock in the vast cool cellars at Rheims, where one noted firm alone keeps a standing reserve of 9,000,000 bottles.

CORONER HELD POST MORTEM

REMAINS OF MRS. CAMPBELL WERE DISINTERRED.

Examination Held Tuesday Shows the Fracture of the Skull to be a Very Extensive One.

Under orders from the officials Coroner W. W. Barnett went to the Notestine cemetery Tuesday afternoon, and disinterred the remains of Mrs. John Campbell, who died from injuries received in a fall from a wagon a short time ago, the particulars of which are still fresh in the minds of the readers of The Sentinel.

A post mortem examination was then held by Dr. C. E. Barnett and revealed a very extensive fracture of the skull. The fracture extended through the right temporal region, forward to the outer angle of the eye, then through the roof of the orbital cavity and the floor of the cranial cavity, through the body of the sphenoid bone to the internal ear of the left side.

Dr. Barnett says the fracture was one of the most extensive that ever came under his observation. The coroner has not yet returned his verdict in the case. The news of the examination Tuesday spread rapidly about the adjacent country and quite a crowd gathered at the cemetery to witness it.

A PURE SOAP

Is necessary for a good complexion. A soap to be pure need not necessarily be high-priced. We have on hand a large assortment of all the leading makes of toilet soaps, and we have besides, other varieties, which, if not so well known, are fully as good and cost less money.

Do not forget, however, that we keep everything else a druggist should have, and that our prices are always placed at the lowest notch consistent with quality.
